Message from the Chancellor

At the Rancho Santiago Community College District, which comprises Santa Ana College and Santiago Canyon College, the safety and well-being of our students, faculty, staff, and visitors remain our top priority. We are committed to fostering a secure and welcoming environment where learning and personal growth can thrive.

Each year, in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act), we publish this Annual Security Report to provide transparent information about campus crime statistics, safety policies, and prevention efforts. This report is a vital resource for our community, offering insight into our ongoing work to maintain a safe educational environment.

While community colleges often experience lower crime rates than the broader community, we must remain vigilant. Safety is a shared responsibility, and it requires the active participation of every member of our district. By staying informed, reporting concerns, and supporting one another, we can continue to strengthen the culture of safety across our campuses.

I encourage all students, employees, and visitors to review this report and take advantage of the resources and programs available through our District Public Safety Department. Together, we can ensure that Rancho Santiago Community College District remains a place where everyone feels safe, supported, and empowered to succeed.

Let's continue to put safety first.

Marvin Martinez
Chancellor

Message from the Vice Chancellor, Business Services, District Safety & Security

On behalf of the men and women of the Rancho Santiago Community College District, Department of District Safety & Security, we want to thank you for taking the time to review our Annual Security Report. I hope that you find this report useful and informative.

The information in this report is being published in accordance with federal law and includes crime statistics from the past three years and information about safety resources available to all.

The entire Department of District Safety & Security is committed to serving the needs of our students, faculty, staff, and visitors by providing a safe, secure, and welcoming atmosphere conducive to an effective, pleasant learning and working environment.

Each member of our community shares the responsibility of personal safety, and the Department of District Safety & Security enjoys working in partnership with all stakeholders to accomplish this goal.

Our college community is extremely safe, and this is because of the partnership between the community and the safety team. I encourage you to stay involved by proactively identifying issues before they become problems and play an active role in continuing to make our campuses safe, secure, and inviting.

Everyone should familiarize themselves with our safety and emergency procedures, practice good personal safety concepts, and immediately report crimes or suspicious circumstances to the Department of District Safety & Security.

I would also like to take a moment to personally acknowledge and thank Chief David Waters for his exceptional service, unwavering commitment, and dedication. His leadership and contributions have left a lasting impact on all of us in District Safety & Security, and we are truly grateful.

Iris

THE ANNUAL SECURITY REPORT

Rancho Santiago Community College District is committed to your safety and security on and around our campuses. As part of this responsibility, the District Safety & Security Department compiles the Annual Security Report on behalf of the District for Santa Ana College, Santiago Canyon College, Centennial Education Center, College and Workforce Preparation Center, Digital Media Center, Orange County Sheriff’s Regional Training Academy, OEC Provisional Education Facility and Remington Adult Education Center.

The Clery Act (officially known as the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act) requires colleges and universities, including California community colleges, to record specific campus crime statistics and safety policies for consumer protection. The Clery Act (20 U.S.C. § 1092(f)) is a federal law that requires colleges’ participation as a condition of receiving Title IV student financial assistance programs under the Higher Education Act.

The crime statistics are included in an annual security report published each year by October 1st for prospective and current students and employees to educate any interested consumer on campus and community safety. In addition to publishing an annual security report, colleges and universities are required to publish and update security policies. In 2013, the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act amended the Clery Act to include additional crimes to report, such as dating violence, domestic violence and stalking, and required colleges to create and disclose additional security policies.

Rancho Santiago Community College District promotes a safe and secure learning and working environment for all students and employees consistent with the Clery Act and other applicable federal and state laws. Federal law prohibit retaliation against any individual who makes a Clery Act report or request (34 C.F.R. § 668.46(m)).

Preparation Of The Annual Security Report And Disclosure Of Crime Statistics

The Chief of the District Safety & Security Department is responsible for preparing the Annual Security Report. The Clery Act requires colleges to:

- Classify crime reports, compile the data and disclose the crime statistics
- Produce and actively distribute an Annual Security Report (ASR)
- Submit crime statistics to the Department of Education
- Issue timely warning and emergency notification to the campus community

The Clery Coordinator is responsible for requesting and collecting the annual crime statistics for Clery defined crimes from several sources including Campus Safety, Student Services, Title IX Coordinator, Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) and local law enforcement agencies. Crime statistics include the number of all reported offenses without regard to the findings of a court, coroner, jury, or the decision of a prosecutor.

This report provides statistics for the previous three years of Clery reported crimes that occurred on Clery geography (campus, off-campus buildings and on property owned, leased or controlled by the college).

Notification Of The Annual Security Report

District Safety & Security distributes a notice of the availability of the Annual Security Report no later than October 1st of each year to the members of the Campus Community, including students and employees, via their official college email account. The email will include the website link to access the report and where to obtain a copy of the report.

ABOUT RANCHO SANTIAGO
COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

The Rancho Santiago Community College District (RSCCD) is a multi-college District with various sites and centers offering classes in multiple cities within Orange County. The District serves a population of more than 571,000 residents in the communities of Anaheim Hills, Orange, Santa Ana, Villa Park and portions of Anaheim, Costa Mesa, Irvine, Fountain Valley, Garden Grove and Tustin. Primary campuses are Santa Ana College and Santiago Canyon College. In addition, the District maintains the Centennial and Orange Continuing Education Centers, Digital Media Center, the Orange County Regional Fire Training Center, the Orange County Sheriff’s Regional Training Academy, College and Workforce Preparation Center and the Remington Education Center.

The Rancho Santiago District Operations Center located in Santa Ana provides services and resources to all RSCCD colleges and centers. RSCCD serves approximately 50,000 students each semester in college credit, continuing education, non-credit education and community services divisions.

Our Mission

The mission of the District Safety & Security Department of the Rancho Santiago Community College District is to serve and protect the people and property at all district locations and to ensure a safe and secure educational environment that encourages personal and intellectual growth.

To accomplish this mission, our primary activity is to perform visible and continuous patrols of district properties so that we are available to our students, staff and guests, to perform safety and security services and to deter crime. Each District Safety Officer is expected to carry out the duties of their assignment with courtesy, consideration, empathy, self-control, impartiality, and honesty. The department will work cooperatively with all others in the District to establish mutual trust and respect.

Core Values:

- We place the highest value on preserving human life.
- We believe that by practicing positive community relations and customer service, we will best achieve a feeling of security in our community.
- We believe that dishonesty, distrust, and rudeness do not belong in our department.
- We are accountable and responsive to the community we serve.
- We respect the dignity, worth, and diversity of all persons.
- We believe the strength of our department is our employees.
- We hold an individual’s right to constitutional protection sacred.
- We encourage open and constructive dialogue between all employees at all levels of our organization.

- We believe that to inspire confidence and trust in our department, we must work together in a spirit of harmony and cooperation.

Safety Is Our Number One Priority

The District Safety & Security Department takes great pride in keeping people safe across the communities of our campuses and centers. Our community is a great place to learn, work and study; however, this does not mean that the campus community is free from problems. The District Safety & Security Department has implemented several measures to create and maintain a safe environment on campus along with being progressive with our policies, programs and education.

We strongly encourage community members to report any criminal and suspicious activity occurring on or near our campuses and centers.
It is up to each of us to live with a sense of awareness and use reasonable judgement when learning, working and visiting our community.

Non-Discrimination Policy

The District is committed to equal opportunity in educational programs, employment and all access to institutional programs and activities.

The District and each individual who represents the District, shall provide access to its services, classes and programs without regard to national origin, religion, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race or ethnicity, color, medical condition, genetic information, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, or military and veteran status, or because they are perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics, or based on association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics.

The Chancellor shall establish administrative procedures that ensure all members of the college community can present complaints regarding alleged violations of this policy and have their complaints heard in accordance with the Title 5 regulations and those of other agencies that administer state and federal laws regarding nondiscrimination. No District funds shall ever be used for membership, or for any participation involving financial payment or contribution on behalf of the District or any individual employed by or associated with it, to any private organization whose membership practices are discriminatory on the basis of national origin, religion, age, gender, gender identity, gender expression, race, color, medical condition, genetic information, ancestry, sexual orientation, marital status, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, or military and veteran status, or because they are perceived to have one or more of the foregoing characteristics, or because of their association with a person or group with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics . BP 3410 Nondiscrimination and AR 3410 Nondiscrimination can be found at <https://rsccd.edu/Departments/TitleIX/pages/policies.aspx>.

Inquiries regarding compliance and/or grievance procedures may be directed to RSCCD Title IX Officer, Section 504/ADA Coordinator, phone number 714-480-7404 or email civilrights@rsccd.edu.

Workplace Violence

Workplace Violence Prevention Plan

The District prohibits and will not tolerate any form of workplace violence by any employee or third party, including customers, clients, vendors, visitors, students, or others, either at the workplace, in or on District property, or at District sponsored events.

The District will attempt to address hazards associated with differing types of workplace violence and ensure that it meets federal, state, and local laws. Each allegation of violence or threat of violence will be taken seriously. All employees will be offered training on general and job-specific workplace security measures.

All employees are encouraged to immediately report acts of violence and threats of violence to their supervisor, District Safety & Security or Human Resources. They may also make a report through the District’s Maxient reporting system (a link is available on all District desktop computers). Acts of violence and threats of violence by faculty and staff may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination. For students, such actions may result in disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion. Criminal prosecution may result if federal, state, or local laws are violated.

Workplace Violence – Administrative Regulation 3510

Rancho Santiago Community College District is committed to providing a safe work and educational environment that is free of violence and the threat of violence.

Responding to Acts or Threats of Violence

The top priority in this process is effectively handling critical workplace incidents involving actual or potential violence. Violence or the threat of violence against or by any employee of the District or any other person is unacceptable. Immediate action will be taken to stop any act or threat of violence on district property.

A non-employee on District property, who commits or threatens violent behavior, shall be subject to criminal and civil sanctions, including removal from the property, restraining orders and prosecution.

Any District employee or student who violates this policy shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action pursuant to the applicable policies and procedures of the District and may further be subject to such additional civil and criminal sanctions, including but not limited to, restraining orders, criminal charges, and civil law suits, as permitted by law.

Any employee who is the victim of any violent threatening or harassing conduct, any witness to such conduct, or anyone receiving a report of such conduct, whether the perpetrator is a District employee or a non-employee, shall immediately report the incident to their supervisor and to the District Safety & Security Department. In emergency situations, the employee may also call the local law enforcement agency by calling 911.

No one, acting in good faith, who initiates a complaint or reports an incident under this policy will be subject to retaliation or harassment.

Any employee reported to be a perpetrator will be provided both due process and representation before disciplinary action is taken.

In the event the District fears for the safety of the perpetrator or the safety of others at the scene of the violent act, the District Safety & Security Department (3-3-3) and the local police (9-1-1) will be called.

Complete Board Policy and Administrative Regulation regarding Workplace Violence are on the RSCCD website.

About The District Safety & Security Department

District Safety Officers receive their authority, limited to RSCCD property only, from the Board of Trustees of RSCCD and the Penal Code, Education Code and Vehicle Code of California. District Safety Officers are non-sworn and do not possess peace officer status or police authority. District Safety Officers may make, or can assist others in making private person’s arrests pursuant to section 837 of the Penal Code. District Safety Officers are authorized to enforce traffic and parking regulations on our campuses. They may issue citations for parking violations at Santa Ana College, Centennial Educations Center, Orange Educations Center, Santiago Canyon College and other District sites.

The District Safety & Security Department will employ community oriented security principles, problem solving techniques and other appropriate methods that will fit within and contribute to the educational philosophy and processes of RSCCD. District Safety Officers are responsible for providing the safest possible environment within the scope of their authority, training, job duties and abilities.

The District Safety & Security Department consists of one Chief, two Lieutenants, four Sergeants, twenty-two full-time Officers, six part-time Officers, eight Reserve Officers, two Dispatchers, one Locksmith, and two office support staff. The District Safety & Security Department provides service 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. District Safety Officers patrol the campuses on foot, bicycle, carts and marked vehicles. The department is considered a hybrid agency consisting of armed and unarmed officers. The District Safety & Security Department has three office locations to service the campus community:

Besides providing general safety and security, District Safety Officers may perform the following services:

- Render first-aid when the Health Center is closed (Call 714-564-6330 for Emergencies or 333 from a campus phone).
- Respond to emergencies on campus.
- Provide lost-and-found property services.
- Assist in starting vehicles by jump-starting dead batteries.
- Take crime reports, assist in the recovery of stolen property, and help the parties involved contact the police department when necessary.
- Provide directions and information regarding campus facilities and events.
- Assist with traffic accidents on campus.
- Provide escort services for staff and students on campus, particularly during hours of darkness.
- Direct a contingency of student security assistants who patrol parking lots and provide escort services.
- Support the College Injury and Illness Prevention Program through periodic safety inspections of all campus buildings and grounds.

The District Safety & Security Department has implemented training standards which adhere to the Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training (POST). All District Safety Officers have received the PC 832(a) Laws of Arrest training, in addition the armed officers receiving the PC 832(b) Firearms training. District Safety Officers have also completed School Security Guard Training. This training course was developed by the Bureau of Security and Investigation Services (BSIS) in consultation with the Commission on Peace Officers Standards and Training (POST) and meets the requirements in Senate Bill 1626 which requires all school security officers to complete this training. District Safety Officers also receive continuing training in First Aid/CPR/AED, Emergency Response and Tactics along with additional training to meet the unique needs of a campus environment.

Mission Statement

“We serve and protect our community with respect, professionalism and accountability; while striving for excellence.”

Working Relationship With Local Law Enforcement

The District Safety & Security Department maintains a close working relationship with local law enforcement agencies.

Our District Safety Officers may detain offenders for local law enforcement officers. Local law enforcement agencies have primary responsibility for exercising police authority and investigating crimes on our campuses, sites, and centers. District Safety Officers will make internal incident and crime reports and may call local police departments that have primary jurisdiction to respond to crime scenes, take official police reports from victims and provide investigative forensic services as required for all serious crimes. District Safety Officers will respond to all crime reports in a timely manner and will assist victims in contacting local police to make official crime reports.

Daily Crime Log

The District Safety & Security Department maintains a Daily Crime Log of all incidents reported or investigated by the District Safety & Security Department. The log identifies the type, general location, date and time reported, date and time occurred and current disposition, if known, of each incident reported. The Daily Crime Log can be viewed at any District Safety & Security office Monday through Friday from 8:00am to 4:00pm. The District Safety & Security Department carefully monitors all reported incidents that occur and allocates resources as needed to maintain a safe environment.

CRIME REPORTING PROCEDURES

Report Criminal Actions And Other Emergencies

RSCCD has a number of ways for campus community members and visitors to report crimes, suspicious activity, and other emergencies to appropriate college officials. Irrespective of how and where you report these incidents, it is critical for the safety of the entire college community that you immediately report all concerns to the District Safety & Security Department at 714-564-6330. This ensures an effective investigation and appropriate follow-up actions, including issuing a timely warning or emergency notification. RSCCD encourages the accurate and prompt reporting of all crime to the District Safety & Security Department and to the appropriate local police authority, (see chart above) when the victim of a crime elects to, or is unable to, make such a report. Campus Safety is available 24 hours a day by calling (714) 564-6330 or in person at:

Voluntary, Confidential Reporting

RSCCD has a reputation for maintaining safe campuses where staff, students and faculty can work and study without fear for their personal safety or property. This is, in part, a result of everyone working together to create an atmosphere that is safe and conducive to learning. If crimes go unreported, little if anything can be done to prevent other members of the community from possibly becoming victims. The District Safety & Security Department encourages anyone who is the victim or witness of any crime to promptly report the incident to Campus Safety or local law enforcement. If you are the victim of a crime and do not want to pursue action within the District's system or the criminal justice system, you may still want to consider making a confidential report. With your permission the District Safety & Security can file a report on the details of the incident without revealing your identity. The purpose of a confidential report is to comply with your wish to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the safety for yourself and others. However, because police reports are public records under state law, District Safety & Security cannot guarantee the confidentiality of law enforcement's reports. AR 3515 Reporting of Crimes. Anonymous Reporting

If you are interested in reporting a crime anonymously, you can utilize the following methods to report a crime:

WeTip – Anonymous Crime Reporting Hotline

Website: <https://wetip.com>
Phone: 800-78-CRIME (800-782-7463)

OC Crime Stoppers

Website: <https://www.ocsheriff.gov/occrimestoppers>
Phone: 855-TIP-OCCS (855-847-6227)

By policy, we do not attempt to trace the origin of the person who submits information in this manner, unless such is deemed necessary for public safety. The District Safety & Security Department will accept anonymous reports of crime from victims or witnesses on a voluntary, confidential basis for inclusion in the annual disclosure of crime statistics.

In addition, RSCCD has partnered with Rave Guardian to provide a free app that allows the campus community to share information and safety concerns directly with the District Safety & Security Department. This can be done via text, with pictures, video, audio attachments and you can even start a live chat. Through the app, reporting can also be done anonymously. It is important to note that in the cases of anonymous reporting, the District’s response is limited. To get the free app and downloading instructions, go to:

Reporting to District Safety & Security Department

If you are the victim or witness to a crime, RSCCD strongly encourages you to promptly report the matter to the District Safety & Security Department. Callers may remain anonymous. Crime reports are taken at the Campus Safety offices at Santa Ana College and Santiago Canyon College or at the Administration office of the other sites and centers. District Safety Officers can also respond to your location on campus to take a report.

To report a crime or if you need assistance and guidance, the contact information and locations are listed below:

Emergency Blue Light Tower Phones

Emergency blue light tower phones are located on campuses and centers. They are located in public areas including buildings, elevators, administration buildings, and numerous outdoor locations. The phones provide direct voice communication to the Campus Safety office 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and can be used to report suspicious activity and crime.

Campus Security Authorities

We recognize that some individuals may elect to report crimes to other college officials. While RSCCD prefer that community members promptly report all crimes and other emergencies directly to the District Safety & Security Department at 714-564-6330, we also understand that some may prefer to report to other individuals or College offices. The Clery Act recognizes certain college officials and offices as “Campus Security Authorities (CSA)”. The Act defines these individuals as “officials” of an institution who have a significant responsibility for student and campus activities, student discipline and campus judicial proceedings.

An official is defined “as any person who has the authority and the duty to take action or respond to particular issues on behalf of the institution”. An example of offices where campus community members may notify their CSAs includes but are not limited to:

- Deans of Student Services/Development
- Office of Human Resources
- Other Deans
- Athletics directors
- Coaches
- Faculty advisors to student groups

- International student coordinators
- Counselors

These individuals are designated as “Campus Security Authorities” and are required to report crimes reported to them to the District Safety & Security Department.

Professional Health Psychologist and Pastoral Counselors

A professional (mental health) psychologist and pastoral counselors are excluded from the mandatory reporting of a crime. RSCCD does not employ pastoral counselors. However, RSCCD is committed to ensuring a safe and secure environment and encourages a professional psychologist to advise those who they are counseling of the College’s voluntary, confidential reporting process and procedures for victims of crime who wish to remain confidential. Anyone on campus can report a crime or other emergency by dialing 911 to reach local law enforcement authority, call the District Safety & Security Department at 714-564-6330 or dial 333 from any District phone.

Timely Warnings

The purpose of a timely warning is to alert the campus community to the occurrence of a Clery Act crime within RSCCD Clery geography, that constitutes a serious or ongoing threat to the campus community. The intent of a timely warning is to aid in the safety awareness of students as soon as pertinent information is available so that they may take appropriate precautions. The District encourages anyone with information regarding criminal activity that may warrant a timely warning to immediately report the circumstances to Campus Safety.

For purposes of this policy, “timely” means as soon as reasonably practicable, generally not more than 48 hours after an incident has been reported to the District Safety & Security Department or the Campus Security Authorities identified by RSCCD, or local law enforcement authorities that have concurrent jurisdiction and shared information with the impacted College or center.

Clery Act crimes are defined in four (4) different categories as follows:

Part 1—Primary Crimes:

Murder and Non Negligent Manslaughter.

- Negligent Manslaughter.
- Aggravated Assault.
- Arson.
- Burglary.
- Robbery.
- Motor Vehicle Theft.
- Rape.
- Fondling.
- Incest.
- Statutory Rape.

Part 2—Alcohol, drug and weapon violations

- Liquor law violations.
- Weapons Possession.
- Drug abuse violations.

Part 3—Hate Crimes:

- Hate Crimes.
 - o A hate crime is a criminal act that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator’s bias against the victim.
 - Larceny-Theft.
 - Simple Assault.
 - Intimidation.
 - Destruction damage or vandalism of property.

Part 4—Violence Against Women Act Crimes (VAWA) (2013):

- Domestic Violence.
- Dating Violence.
- Stalking.

The Chief of the District Safety & Security Department, Chancellor, Presidents, Vice Presidents, or their designees have the discretion to issue safety alerts in other situations as well as distribute notices for other crimes as deemed necessary.

In determining whether to issue a Timely Warning, the College will consider any factors available related to whether the alleged crime represents a serious or continuing threat to the college community. A timely warning will be issued when the criteria below have been met:

- A crime is reported to the District Safety & Security Department or a Campus Safety Authority
- The crime is a Clery Act crime
- The crime is reported to have occurred on the Clery Act geography of the campuses
- The crime is considered by the institution to present a serious or ongoing threat to students and/or employees.

The timely warning will include information that is necessary and appropriate to promote safety and aid in the prevention of similar crimes. The content of a timely warning will, at minimum (if available), include the time, location, and type of crime. The warning may also provide a brief information about the situation if warranted, and the information that promotes safety and helps individuals protect themselves from similar crimes.

SECURITY OF AND ACCESS TO CAMPUS FACILITIES

RSCCD does not have any residential areas and does not operate housing facilities on any campus or center. Most campus buildings are open Monday through Friday from 7:00am to 10:30pm. Academic buildings are open on weekends only as needed. Access to individual classrooms and laboratories are limited to those enrolled in the courses. Likewise, access to most programs is limited to those enrolled in the program or have authorized access. Members of the campus community have access to buildings for study, work, or teaching, but not unrelated school functions. Therefore, only those who have approval are provided access. Students and staff may be asked to produce identification if there is a question about authorization to a specific area on campus.

Persons who need to be in campus buildings or areas after regular hours should obtain approval from their supervisors and notify the Campus Safety office of their presence during off-hours. Students may not use facilities after hours unless supervised by authorized staff. Persons entering the campus without lawful business may be subject to arrest.

District Safety Officers may unlock doors for weekend classes and for other scheduled events. It is the responsibility of those using the facilities to ensure that lights and other electrical equipment are turned off and that doors and windows are closed and locked after use. District Safety Officers will patrol and monitor District facilities after hours to ensure they are locked and secure and will notify appropriate staff of any safety problems or hazard. The District Safety & Security Department is committed to maintaining a safe and secure campus. Keys and access control devices are provided to staff members, on a need-to-enter basis, when approved by the appropriate supervisor. Lost keys and access control devices must be reported immediately to the supervisor and to District Safety. Payment for lost keys may be required. Keys and access control devices may not be loaned to other staff or to students. District Safety Officers will confiscate any keys in the possession of unauthorized persons. District keys shall not be duplicated. District property may not be removed from District facilities without authorization.

Security In the Maintenance of Campus Facilities

The Maintenance and Operations Department and the District Safety & Security Department work together to enhance the safety, security and maintenance of the college campuses and centers.

The Maintenance and Operations Department regularly monitors all campus facilities for necessary safety and security related repairs and works closely with the Campus Safety office to assist in creating a safer environment for the members of the campus community.

District Safety Officers and custodial staff secure doors and windows and perform periodic inspections to spot and mitigate safety hazards. Life safety, intrusion alarms, video surveillance systems and access control systems are installed at various facilities and are monitored and inspected regularly.

We encourage community members to promptly report any security concerns, including locking mechanism, lighting or safety concerns to Campus Safety or by utilizing the functions imbedded in the Rave Guardian app.

MONITORING AND RECORDING CRIMINAL ACTIVITY AT OFF-CAMPUS STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Rancho Santiago Community College District does not have any officially recognized student organizations with off-campus locations.

CRIME PREVENTION AND SECURITY AWARENESS PROGRAMS

RSCCD promotes security awareness on the part of all members of the campus community. The effectiveness of the crime prevention program is based on the cooperation of all students, faculty and staff in creating an atmosphere that is safe and conducive for learning. Everyone is asked to assist in making the campus community a safe place by being alert to suspicious situations or persons and by reporting them to Campus Safety. We seek to minimize criminal activities and opportunities through individual participation in crime awareness programs.

- If you are the victim or witness to any violation of the law, such as assault, robbery, overt sexual behavior, etc., immediately contact Campus Safety at 714-564-6330 or dial 911.
- Do not attempt to apprehend or interfere with the criminal except in the case of self-defense. Do not take any unnecessary chances!
- If a person becomes disruptive (violent, threatening, bizarre behavior), immediately notify Campus Safety at 714-564-6330 or dial 911.
- IF IN IMMEDIATE DANGER shout, yell for help, send a runner for help, make noise in any other way you can. Pull a fire alarm, run, try to make your way towards a phone and dial 911.

RSCCD contributes toward crime prevention and security awareness through the following:

- Campus Patrol – Uniformed District Safety Officers patrol the campus grounds on foot, carts, bicycles and marked vehicles. District Safety Officers are on duty 24 hours a day, seven days a week at Santa Ana College and Santiago Canyon College. After hour patrols of our Education Centers and other sites occur periodically. Student Assistants are assigned to patrol specific areas and parking lots, supplementing the regular safety and security staff.

- Escort program – District Safety Officers and Student Assistants are available to escort persons on campus, particularly during hours of darkness. Campus Safety is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
- Emergency Blue Light Tower Phones – Blue light tower phones are strategically placed throughout the campuses and certain centers. They are completely wireless for enhancing public security on our campuses and parking lots providing clear voice-to-voice communication over a cellular network to the Campus Safety office.
- Rave Guardian – RSCCD has partnered with Rave Guardian to develop an app that provides students, faculty and staff with a direct connection to the Campus Safety office. Students, faculty, and staff can easily communicate all their safety needs directly to Campus Safety. The app has easy-to-use features to help users stay safe every day and enables us to better protect the campus community. The app can be downloaded at: <https://www.raveguardian.com>
- Rave Mobile Safety – RSCCD uses Rave Mobile Safety to provide email alerts and text alerts as well as phone notification to the campus communities. Rave Mobile Safety is an emergency notification service which all staff and students are automatically enrolled; it is an opt-out system. Rave Mobile Safety is used to send messages within minutes of an emergency occurring.
- New students, faculty and staff orientation – Every school year Campus Safety conducts safety meetings with various groups to include Faculty, Staff and Students. Since we are first responders to all emergencies, we are often invited to speak at in-service training sessions for employees. Topics we cover include an overview of services provided by our officers. Responding to calls for service, locking/unlocking doors, escorts, vehicle jump starts and conducting emergency drills for fire, earthquake and active shooter. Student groups are especially interested in how we handle parking permits and enforcement. We always emphasize that we are part of the campus community and are guardians rather than enforcers when it comes to safety.
- Safety Notification Alerts – When a specific threat to safety exists or a serious crime has occurred on or around our campuses, RSCCD will provide information through announcements, emails, social media, text messaging, campus PA system, emergency messages through the RSCCD's telephone system, and RSCCD homepage.
- Video Surveillance Camera System – All RSCCD facilities have video cameras installed throughout the public common areas, including walkways, parking areas, grounds around the exterior of buildings, and malls. The cameras continuously record onto the District Safety & Security Department's video management system. Recorded images will be reviewed should an incident occur to establish facts.

• Safety Videos – The following videos; Student Emergency Procedures and Practices and Run Hide Fight – Tips to survive an active shooter situation can be found at:

- Santa Ana College <https://www.sac.edu/StudentServices/Security/Pages/default.aspx>
- Santiago Canyon College <https://www.sccollege.edu/campus/collegeoffices/security/SitePages/Safety-Videos.aspx>

While the campuses of RSCCD are relatively safe places, crimes do occur. We want all our community to be aware of these occurrences so they can better avoid being a victim of crime.

Theft is a common occurrence on college campuses. Often, this is because theft is often seen as a crime of opportunity. Open study areas, recreation facilities, and many open classrooms and laboratories provide thieves with effortless opportunities. Due to the friendly nature of the campus environment, many often feel a sense of security and become too trusting of their peers, while others leave classrooms and laboratories unlocked when not occupied for short periods of time.

It is important to be very vigilant when it comes to suspicious persons. Never leave items and valuables lying around unsecured. Doors should be locked at all times. The following is a list of suggestions to help you not fall victim to theft:

- Keep doors to offices, labs, classrooms locked when not occupied.
- Do not provide unauthorized access to persons in buildings or classrooms.
- Do not keep large amounts of money with you.

- Lock all valuables, money, jewelry, and wallet in a lock box or locked drawer.
- Keep a list of all valuable possessions including the makes, models, and serial numbers.
- Do not leave laptop computers or textbooks unattended in labs or libraries, even if it is for a short period.
- Do not lend credit cards or identification cards to anyone.
- Report loitering persons or suspicious persons to the Campus Safety immediately; do not take any chances.
- Use a U lock for securing bicycles when you are leaving them on campus. The bookstore at SAC sells these locks for cost price. District Safety & Security Department offers a bicycle lock exchange. Any enrolled student can exchange an old bicycle lock for a U-lock at the security office on their campus.

CAMPUS SAFETY AWARENESS TRAINING

Campus Safety coordinates with campus administration, department heads and managers to facilitate all training opportunities. Campus Safety conducts safety briefings for employees/faculty/students covering topics to include: Disaster Preparedness, Campus Evacuations, Staff/Student Safety Recommendations and Active Shooter Incidents.

The District Safety & Security Department provides a multitude of training opportunities to our district community. In addition to campus specific training provided by Campus Safety at each of our locations, the District Safety & Security Department develops and facilitates a Districtwide training strategy for District Staff, Managers, Faculty and Classified Employees.

This year both Santa Ana College and Santiago Canyon College management attended “Executive Leadership Emergency Operations Center & Incident Command System Overview Training.” This training is designed for executive level cabinet members and campus leadership, such as Chancellors, Vice Chancellors, Presidents, and Vice Presidents, Executive Directors, Directors and Supervisors. The training focused on Emergency Operations Centers, Incident Command System, leadership roles, challenges, and best practices. While being critical training for the staff, it was also preparation for an Emergency Operations Center (EOC) functional exercise held at both colleges. The exercises were based on an earthquake scenario and had the following objectives:

- Determine the optimum makeup of the Emergency Operations Center Team.
- Determine and list what training and tools may be required by the EOC team to more effectively perform its function.
- Determine and list what additional steps need to be taken to establish effective all-hazards emergency management at RSCCD.

The colleges Incident Command logistics section team also participated in a full scale Logistics exercise where they learned to set-up the Emergency Operations Center, including running the college generators.

Both the EOC Functional exercises and the full-scale Logistics exercises yielded critical lessons learned that are being used to update the District’s Emergency Operations Plan and modify needed strategies to prevent, prepare for, mitigate against, respond to and recover from a critical incident.

TITLE IX AND THE CLERY ACT

Title IX

While the two laws seem very similar and they are in some respects, there are some key differences as well. Knowing and understanding where the laws overlap and where they do not is key to fulfilling the requirements of both laws and, more importantly, maintaining a safe, healthy environment that is conducive to learning and success.

Title IX promotes equal opportunity by providing that no person may be subjected to discrimination on the basis of sex under any educational program or activity receiving federal financial assistance. A school must respond promptly and effectively to sexual harassment, including sexual violence, that creates a hostile environment.

Sexual Harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment: When an employee of the District conditions (implicitly or explicitly) the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the District on an individual’s participation in unwelcome sexual conduct; or
- Hostile Environment Sexual Harassment: Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person standing in the shoes of the Complainant to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the District’s education program or activity; or
- Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, as defined herein.
- Sexual assault means any sexual act (forcible or non-forcible), directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent. Sexual acts include the following:
 - Rape, which is defined as the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the Complainant.
 - Sodomy, which is defined as oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person, forcibly committed and/or against that person’s will (nonconsensually), or not forcibly or against the person’s will in instances in which the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

- Sexual Assault with an Object, which is defined as the use of an object or instrument to penetrate, however slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will (nonconsensually), or not forcibly or against the person's will in instances in which the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
- Fondling, which is defined as the touching of the private parts of another person for the purposes of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
- Incest, which is defined as sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- Statutory Rape, which is defined as sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.
- Dating violence means violence committed, on the basis of sex, by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the Complainant. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: the length of the relationship, the type of relationship and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. For the purposes of this definition, dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

- Domestic violence means conduct, on the basis of sex, that includes the requisite components of felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by (a) a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim; (b) a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; (c) a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse; (d) a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under California law; or (e) any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under California law.
- Stalking means a course of conduct directed at a specific person on the basis of sex that would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person's safety or the safety of others, or to suffer substantial emotional distress. For the purposes of this definition: (a) A course of conduct is two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the Respondent directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property; (b) Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Complainant; and (c) Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

The Clery Act

The Clery Act promotes campus safety by ensuring that students, employees, parents, and the broader community are well-informed about important public safety and crime prevention matters. Institutions that receive Title IV funds must disclose accurate and complete crime statistics for incidents that are reported to Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) and local law enforcement as having occurred on or near the campus. Schools must also disclose campus safety policies and procedures that specifically address topics such as sexual assault prevention, drug and alcohol abuse prevention, and emergency response and evacuation. The Clery Act also promotes transparency and ongoing communication about campus crimes and other threats to health and safety and empowers members to take a more active role in their own safety and security.

- Criminal Offenses – Criminal homicide; rape and other sexual assaults; robbery; aggravated assault; burglary; motor vehicle theft; and, arson as well as arrests and disciplinary referrals for violations of drug, liquor, and weapons laws.
- Hate Crimes – Any of the above-mentioned offenses and any incidents of larceny-theft, simple assault, intimidation or destruction/damage/vandalism of property, that were motivated by bias.
- VAWA – The reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 amended the Clery Act to include disclosure of statistics regarding incidents of dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking as defined in 20 U.S.C. §1092(f)(1) (F)(iii) and 20 U.S.C. §1092(f)(7).

Institutions must disclose crime statistics for Clery reportable offenses that occur on its so-called "Clery Geography". Clery geography includes three general categories:

- On Campus – Any building or property that an institution owns or controls within a reasonably contiguous area that directly supports or relates to the institution's educational purposes. On campus also includes residence halls and properties the institution owns and students use for educational purposes that are controlled by another person (such as a food or retail vendor). The definition of "controlled" includes all such properties that are leased or borrowed and used for educational purposes. 20 U.S.C. §1092(f)(6)(ii).
- Non-campus building or property – Any building or property that is owned or controlled by a recognized student organization. Any building or property that is owned or controlled by the institution that is used in support of its educational purposes but is not located within a reasonably contiguous area to the campus. The definition of "controlled" includes all such properties that are leased or borrowed and used for educational purposes. 20 U.S.C. §1092(f)(6)(iii).
- Public property - All public property within the reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution that is adjacent to or accessible from a facility the institution owns or controls and that is used for educational purposes. 20 U.S.C. §1092(f)(6)(iv).

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT PREVENTION AND RESPONSE PROGRAM AND SEX OFFENSE PROCEDURES

RSCCD does not discriminate based on gender or sex in its educational or work environments nor does it tolerate sex or

Bias Categories
Term	Definition
Race	A preformed negative attitude toward a group of persons who possess common physical characteristics, genetically transmitted by descent and heredity which distinguish them as a distinct division of humankind.
Religion	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons who share the same religious beliefs regarding the origin and purpose of the universe and the existence or nonexistence of a supreme being.
Sexual Orientation	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their actual or perceived sexual orientation. Sexual Orientation is the term for a person's physical, romantic, and/or emotional attraction to members of the same and/or opposite sex, including lesbian, gay, bisexual, and heterosexual (straight) individuals.
Gender	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a person or group of persons based on their actual or perceived gender.
Gender Identity	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a person or group of persons based on their actual or perceived gender identity. Gender non-conforming describes a person who does not conform to the gender-based expectations of society. A gender non-conforming person may or may not be a lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender person but may be perceived as such.
Ethnicity	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of people whose members identify with each other, through a common heritage, often consisting of a common language, common culture (often including a shared religion) and/or ideology that stresses common ancestry. The concept of ethnicity differs from the closely related term "race" in that "race" refers to a grouping based mostly upon biological criteria, while "ethnicity" also encompasses additional cultural factors.
National Origin	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of people based on their actual or perceived country of birth. This bias may be against people that have a name or accent associated with a national origin group, participate in certain customs associated with a national origin group, or because they are married to or associate with people of a certain group origin.
Disability	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their physical or mental impairments, whether such disability is temporary or permanent, congenital or acquired by heredity, accident, injury, advanced age or illness.

gender-based discrimination, sexual harassment and sexual misconduct, which is a type of sex discrimination. Other acts can also be forms of sex-based discrimination and are prohibited, including dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and retaliation (“prohibited conduct”). As a result, RSCCD issues this statement of policy to inform the community of our comprehensive plan for addressing sexual misconduct, including educational programs and procedures that address prohibited conduct and how these events are reported to a District official. In this context, RSCCD prohibits these offenses and reaffirms its commitment to maintain a campus environment emphasizing the dignity and worth of all members of the campus community.

These guidelines apply to all students, faculty, and staff at both Santa Ana College and Santiago Canyon College, as well as the District Office. Any sexual misconduct occurring on District facilities or at a District sponsored or supervised event is strictly prohibited and may be a violation of District policy and may be subject to administrative disciplinary action and criminal and civil prosecution.

Our Commitment to Addressing Sexual Assault/ Rape, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking

The District does not tolerate sexual misconduct or abuse, such as sexual assault, rape, or any other forms of non-consensual sexual activity. Sexual misconduct in any form violates the Student code of conduct, District policies and may violate federal and state laws. Violations by students and/or staff are subject to disciplinary sanctions through the office of Student Conduct and Human Resources respectively. Violations are outlined in applicable District policies (please refer to Administrative Regulation 3425 Title IX Sexual Harassment). <https://www.rscdd.edu/Departments/TitleIX/Pages/Policies-and-Resources.aspx>

Complainants (i.e., those individuals impacted by incidents of prohibited conduct) have the right to decide who and when to tell about Sexual Misconduct, Dating and Domestic Violence, Stalking, and all other violations of RSCCD District Board Policies and regulations. It is very important that an individual receives medical attention immediately after being assaulted. Following the incident, an individual may be physically injured, may have contracted a sexually transmitted disease, or may become pregnant. Individuals who witness, are subjected to, or are informed about incidents of any prohibited conduct have the option to file a complaint with the Title IX Coordinator.

The District’s primary concern is the safety and well-being of every member of the campus community. The use of alcohol or drugs never makes the Complainant at fault. If a campus community member has experienced prohibited conduct they should not be deterred from reporting the incident out of a concern that they might be disciplined for related violations of drug, alcohol, or other District policies. Except in extreme circumstances, students or employees who are victims of prohibited conduct will not be subject to discipline.

The District encourages those individuals impacted by Sexual Misconduct, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Stalking, or any other policy violations to talk to someone about what happened so they can get the support they need, and so the District can respond appropriately. Whether and the extent to which a District employee may agree to maintain confidentiality (and not disclose information to the Title IX Coordinator) depends on the employee’s position and responsibilities at the District. Only psychologists within the Student Health Centers are required by law to maintain near or complete confidentiality; talking to them is sometimes called a “privileged communication.” Most other District employees are considered “mandated reporter” and are required to report all details of an incident (including the identities of both the victim and alleged perpetrator) to the Title IX Coordinator so the District can take immediate action to protect the victim, and take steps to correct and eliminate the misconduct.

The Title IX Coordinator

The District has designated a Title IX Coordinator with overall responsibility for oversight of the College’s compliance with its obligations under Title IX, including, but not limited to, its obligations to investigate and respond to allegations of sexual assault. The Title IX Coordinator and members of the Title IX Team can be contacted by office telephone, email and/or in person during regular office hours.

All reports, complaints, and any concerns about conduct that may violate this Policy should be submitted to the Title IX Coordinator, or any member of the Title IX Team.

The Title IX Team monitors the College’s overall compliance with Title IX, ensures appropriate training and education and oversees the College’s investigation, response and resolution of reports made under this Policy. Collectively, the Title IX Coordinator and the individuals supporting the Title IX Coordinator are the “Title IX team”. The Title IX Team is a small circle of individuals who have a “need to know” of any alleged prohibited conduct to effectuate this Policy and procedures. All individuals are employees of the Colleges and have received appropriate training to discharge their responsibilities. Upon receiving reports of prohibited conduct, the Title IX Coordinator ensures that appropriate action is taken to eliminate that conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects. The Title IX Coordinator is available to advise all individuals, including individuals who have experienced misconduct, individuals who are alleged to be responsible for misconduct, and third-Parties on this Policy and the processes. In addition, based on the relationship of the Reporting Party(ies) and/or the Responding Party(ies) to the College, the Title IX Team may be supported by the Vice President of Student or Academic Services, the Dean of Students, the Chief of District Safety & Security, Dean of Students Office, and/or Human Resources.

Exceptions to Confidentiality

Under California law, any health practitioner employed in a health facility, clinic, physician’s office, or local or state public health department or clinic is required to make a report to local law enforcement if they provide medical services for a physical condition to a patient/victim who they know or reasonably suspects is suffering from (1) a wound or physical injury inflicted by a firearm; or (2) any wound or other physical injury inflicted upon a victim where the injury is the result of assaultive or abusive conduct (including Sexual Misconduct, Domestic Violence, and Dating Violence). This exception does not apply to sexual assault and domestic violence counselors and advocates. Health care practitioners should explain this limited exception to victims, if applicable.

Additionally, under California law, physicians, psychotherapists, professional counselors, licensed clinical social workers, clergy, and sexual assault and domestic violence counselors and advocates are mandatory child abuse and neglect reporters, and are required to report incidents involving victims under 18 years of age to local law enforcement. These professionals will explain this limited exception to victims, if applicable. Finally, some or all of these professionals may also have reporting obligations under California law to (1) local law enforcement in cases involving threats of immediate or imminent harm to self or others where disclosure of the information is necessary to prevent the threatened danger; (2) to the court if compelled by court order or subpoena in a criminal proceeding related to the sexual violence incident. If applicable, these professionals will explain this limited exception to victims.

Non-Reporting

Complainants are strongly encouraged to report any incident of sexual misconduct, dating and domestic violence, or stalking to Campus Safety and/or Title IX Coordinator so that steps may be taken to protect them and the rest of the campus community.

However, non-reporting is also an option, and a victim may decline to engage or participate in an investigation or inquiry at any time, even in situations where a report is made on the victim’s behalf.

Civil Lawsuit

Complainants may choose to file a civil lawsuit against the perpetrator, whether or not criminal charges have been filed. A civil lawsuit provides the opportunity to recover actual damages, which may include compensation for medical expenses, lost wages, pain, suffering and emotional distress.

Administrative

Procedures Survivors should follow in a case of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, as well as any alleged harassment or discrimination is outlined below:

Complainants should report to the Title IX Team, who will provide written and verbal information regarding applicable District complaint procedures for investigating and addressing all incidents of Title IX violations as well as Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, or Stalking. The Title IX Team will also provide information regarding resources as well as information regarding their rights and options. Furthermore, making a report means telling an employee what happened in person, by telephone, in writing, or by email. At the time a report is made, a Reporting Party does not have to request any particular course of action, nor does a Reporting Party need to know how to label what happened. Choosing to make a report, and deciding how to proceed after making the report, can be a process that unfolds over time.

Many resources and options are available on and off campus including confidential and privileged communication options. The Title IX Team is available to explain and discuss rights to file a criminal complaint and to assist in doing so; the District’s relevant complaint process, and rights to receive assistance with that process, including the investigation and hearing process; how confidentiality is handled; available resources, both on and off campus; and other related matters.

When an individual tells the Title IX Team or another non-confidential District employee about a prohibited conduct incident, the victim has the right to expect the District to take immediate and appropriate steps to resolve the matter promptly and equitably. In all cases, the District strongly encourages individuals to report Sexual Misconduct, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, or Stalking directly to the Title IX Team.

In general, there are seven (7) steps to the resolution process to a formal complaint:

1. Intake Report or Notice

Upon receiving notice or a report of sexual misconduct, the Title IX Coordinator will seek to meet with the Complainant to review rights, options, and available resources, including a discussion of potential supportive measures within fourteen (14) days of receiving the report. All persons who are a Reporting Party or a Responding Party to this grievance process are permitted to bring an Advisor of their own choosing, including a family member or an attorney, to provide support. The Advisor may accompany the Party to any and all portions of the grievance process. Upon review of information received through the complaint and the intake process, the Title IX Coordinator will determine whether to proceed with the complaint through the Title IX process under Administrative Regulation 3425, or through the Discrimination and Harassment process under Administrative Regulation 3435 (<https://rsccd.edu/Trustees/Pages/policies-and-regulations.aspx#Chapter3>). If a complaint is deemed appropriate to proceed under the Title IX process, the complainant has the option to proceed under the Discrimination and Harassment instead as well. The different options will be explained verbally to ensure that the complainant makes an informed and educated decision during the process.

2. Formal Complaint

If a Complainant decides to pursue an investigation, or the Title IX Coordinator determines that an investigation is needed, a formal complaint must be submitted. This formal complaint provides details as it relates to the allegation, including the name(s) of the Respondent(s), dates and times of each incident, a description of what occurred, and any documentation in support of the concern. In general, a determination of whether an investigation will be needed will be determined within thirty (30) days of receiving the complaint.

3. Initial Assessment: Review of Jurisdiction & Optional Informal Resolution

After a formal complaint is filed, it will be assessed to ensure whether it falls within the scope of the District’s policy and procedures and to ensure compliance with applicable federal laws and regulations. In lieu of proceeding with an investigation and hearing, a complainant may request that a formal complaint be resolved through informal resolution. Informal resolutions may include discussions, mutually agreed upon plans of action, or mediation. A complainant may request informal resolution at any time during the resolution process.

4. Investigation

The District will fairly and objectively investigate harassment and discrimination complaints. Individuals designated to serve, as investigators under this policy shall have adequate training on an annual basis on what constitutes discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual violence, racial discrimination, disability discrimination, age discrimination, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking, as well as understand how the District’s grievance procedures operate. The investigator may not have any real or perceived conflicts of interest and must be able to investigate the allegations impartially. Investigators will use the following steps: interviewing the complainant(s); interviewing the accused individual(s); identifying and interviewing witnesses and evidence identified by each party; identifying and interviewing any other witnesses, if needed; reminding all individuals interviewed of the District’s no-retaliation policy.

The District will undertake its investigation as promptly and as swiftly as possible. To that end, the investigator shall complete the above steps, and prepare a written report within 90 days of the District receiving the complaint, unless an extension has been granted.

With an investigation:

- a. The burden of proof and the burden of gathering evidence sufficient to make a determination is on the District. The standard of proof that will be used for the investigation and determination will be “a preponderance of the evidence” standard, which is that a particular fact or event was “more likely than not” to have occurred.
- b. The Complainant and Respondent have equal opportunity to provide witnesses, and other evidence in support of their claims.
- c. The Complainant and Respondent have the right to an advisor of choice to join them during this investigation and hearing process. The advisor may be a friend, faculty or staff member, family member, or an attorney.

- d. Prior to their interview, the parties will be given sufficient notice, in writing, so that they can prepare and meaningfully participate.

5. Formal Review of Evidence & Investigation Report

When an investigation is completed, a report is written by the Investigator(s) that summarizes the procedure of the investigation and the evidence collected. The District will provide the Complainant, Respondent, and their Advisors a summary of the result of the investigation, as well as any of the disciplinary proceedings that will occur, if applicable. For cases proceeding under Title IX violations, the Complainants and Respondents will have an opportunity to review the evidence as well as the draft investigative report prior to finalizing it for the Decision-maker(s). They will also be given an opportunity to provide additional relevant materials and witnesses to be interviewed and considered before the investigative report is finalized.

6. Hearings

The final investigation report is provided to a Decision-maker(s). The Decision-maker(s) will be responsible for determining if this policy was violated and to determine appropriate action based on the facts presented. For Title IX cases, a live hearing will be scheduled and recorded, while for all other cases of violation, a charge packet and Skelly (hearing) rights will be provided for disciplines at or above suspension. The parties will be required to have their advisor present for the live hearing or the Skelly meeting. If the parties do not have an advisor available for the hearing(s), the District will provide an advisor for the purpose of conducting questioning of the other party and witnesses at the hearing. When the Decision-maker(s) or a Skelly Officer evaluate the complaint, they shall do so using a preponderance of the evidence standard. Thus, after considering all the evidence it has gathered, the Decisionmaker(s) will decide whether it is more likely than not that a violation has occurred and that the action proposed by the District is appropriate based on the facts presented.

7. Appeal

The Complainant or Respondent may appeal a dismissal or a determination after hearing within fifteen (15) days for Title IX violations, and thirty (30) days for all other violations. The appeal process will be included in the dismissal or determination letter. If an appeal is filed, both parties will be notified in writing. Upon conclusion of the Appeal process, a written determination of the appeal will be simultaneously provided to the Complainant and Respondent. The results of the Appeal will be the Final decision of the investigation.

To the extent possible, information reported to the Title IX Coordinator or other District employees will be kept confidential and shared only with individuals responsible for handling the District's response to the incident. The District will protect the confidentiality of individuals involved in a sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking incident except as otherwise required by law or District policy. A sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking report may result in the gathering of extremely sensitive information about individuals in the campus community. All publicly available record keeping materials, including Clery Act required disclosures, are maintained without the inclusion of personally identifiable information about victims.

The District will not require a Party to participate in any investigation or disciplinary proceeding if the Party does not wish to participate. The District will not generally notify parents or legal guardians of a sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking report unless the victim is under 18 years old or the victim provides the District with written permission to do so. Under California law, and pursuant to District policy, many District employees, including the Title IX Coordinator, are mandatory child abuse and neglect reporters and should explain to victims under 18 years of age that they are required to report the incident to the police. However, the identity of the person who reports and the report itself are confidential and disclosed only among appropriate agencies.

Criminal

Reporting to local police is an option at any time. Victims who choose not to report to the police immediately following a sexual misconduct, dating and domestic violence, or stalking incident, can still make the report at a later time. However, with the passage of time, the ability to gather evidence to assist with criminal prosecution may be limited. Depending on the circumstances, the police may be able to obtain a criminal restraining order on the victim's behalf.

If a victim reports to a local police agency about sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, the police are required to notify victims that their names will become a matter of public record unless confidentiality is requested. If a victim requests that their identity be kept confidential, their name will not become a matter of public record and the police will not report the victim's identity to anyone else. The District is required by the federal Clery Act to report certain types of crimes (including certain sex offenses) in statistical reports. However, while the District will report the type of incident in the annual crime statistics report known as the Annual Security Report, victim names/identities will not be revealed.

A victim has the right to have a confidential advocate present when reporting to law enforcement and during examinations. With the victim's consent, the confidential advocate will assess the victim's immediate needs and provide support and referral as appropriate. This confidential assistance may include: counseling, information concerning rape trauma syndrome; information on the collection of medical evidence and available health services to test for injuries, sexually transmitted diseases, and/or pregnancy. Assistance is also available with access to other resources and services, including assistance in obtaining emergency protection orders and restraining orders. To learn more about Victim Services in Orange County, please use the following link: <https://ocprobation.ocgov.com/>

victim-service

Victims may also choose to obtain a protective or restraining order (such as a Domestic Violence restraining order or a civil harassment restraining order). Restraining orders must be obtained from a court in the jurisdiction where the incident occurred. Restraining orders can protect victims who have experienced or are reasonably in fear of physical violence, Sexual Misconduct, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, or Stalking. The Title IX Team can offer assistance with obtaining a protective or restraining order.

When an order of protection is violated, a victim should immediately enforce that order by notifying the appropriate jurisdiction that issued it. In cases of violations of Emergency Protective Orders and Temporary Restraining Orders, a victim should immediately notify local law enforcement by calling 9-1-1. In cases of violations of college "no contact" orders, the appropriate office or individual who issued the order should be immediately contacted.

Below are different legal options available under certain circumstances:

- An Emergency Protective Order (EPO) is an order issued by a judicial officer upon request by a peace officer under Family Code Section 6250. The purpose of this order is to provide for immediate and short-term protection to victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. Emergency Protective Orders may be obtained by a peace officer investigating a report of these crimes. Contact local law enforcement by dialing 9-1-1.

- Temporary Restraining Orders (TRO's) may be requested by a victim from the Orange County Superior Court. The nearest Orange County County Superior Court location to Santa Ana College campus is located at 700 W. Civic Center Dr, Santa Ana, CA. 92701. Applications for temporary restraining orders may be obtained and filed at the Civil Division located on the first floor, in Room G100. (657) 622-5720. The application must first be approved by a judicial officer before a Temporary Restraining Order is issued.
- College Orders of Protection: Under Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 3434: Responding to Harassment Based on Sex Under Title IX, the College may take measures to protect a complainant who reports being the victim of these crimes. These protective measures may include prohibiting the accused individual from having any contact with the complainant, by providing escorts to ensure that the complainant can move safely between classes and activities, ensuring the complainant and alleged perpetrator do not attend the same classes or work in the same work area, and preventing offending third parties from entering the college. Orders of protection may be requested from the respective College's Title IX Coordinators:

After an incident of sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking occurs it is important to seek medical attention, preserve evidence to aid in the possibility of a successful criminal prosecution or to obtain a protective order. The victim of sexual misconduct should not wash, douche, use the toilet, or change clothing prior to a medical exam. Any clothing removed should be placed in a paper bag. Evidence of violence, such as bruising or other visible injuries following an incident of domestic or dating violence should be documented including the preservation of photographic evidence. Victims of sexual misconduct, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking are encouraged to also preserve evidence by saving text messages, instant messages, social networking pages, other communications and keeping pictures, logs or other copies of documents, if they have any, that would be useful to District Hearing boards/investigators, the court, or police. A victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking who proceeds through the criminal process has the following rights:

- Transportation to a hospital, if necessary
- Counseling by Student Health Center psychologist, or referral to a counseling center
- Notice to the police, if desired
- Assistance with disciplinary process by Vice President of Student Services/Vice President of Continuing Education or designee
- A list of other available campus resources or appropriate off-campus resources by Chief, District Safety & Security Department.

Written resources are available for victims and outline reporting options and other resources. This information is available on campus or at this link: <https://www.rscdd.edu/Departments/TitleIX/Pages/default.aspx>. Information on the procedures to follow, including reporting options, is provided to Complainants, as well as included in the link.

What is Affirmative Consent?

Affirmative consent means affirmative, conscious, and voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that they have the affirmative consent of the other to engage in the sexual activity. Lack of protest or resistance does not mean consent, nor does silence mean consent. Affirmative consent must be ongoing throughout a sexual activity and can be revoked at any time. The existence of a relationship between the persons involved, or past sexual relations between them, should never by itself be assumed to be an indicator of consent. If coercion, intimidation, threats or physical force is used there is no consent. If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated and cannot understand the fact, nature or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent. This includes incapacitation due to alcohol or drug consumption, or being asleep or unconscious. Inducement of incapacitation of another with the intent to affect the ability of an individual to consent or refuse to consent to sexual contact, negates consent.

Defining Sexual Misconduct, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence and Stalking

People who have experienced a sexual misconduct may struggle to understand what happened to them and to define their experience as a "sexual assault" or "rape". This may happen due to the lack of knowledge and comfort levels with these terms.

Sexual misconduct is committed by boyfriends, girlfriends, friends, acquaintances, family, lovers, partners and strangers and affects people of all ages, races, genders, sexualities, and abilities. Sexual misconduct does not discriminate. Sexual misconduct is sometimes used as a way to hurt, humiliate or gain control over someone else. The fact that someone has been intimate with a partner in the past does not mean they have consented to any or all future sexual activity with that partner.

Supportive Measures

The District may take action to ensure the safety and security of the community and its members, while the grievance process of the Title IX case is pending. Interim protections and remedies may be imposed during the investigation of a Title IX report. Interim actions will be reviewed and implemented by the Title IX Team. The College will make reasonable efforts to communicate with the Parties to ensure that all safety, emotional, and physical well-being concerns are being addressed. The Colleges will provide written notification to the victim or complainant about options for, available assistance in, and how to request changes to academic, transportation, and working situations or protective measures (provided below) following and report of alleged domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking incident regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to local law enforcement.

The District will maintain the confidentiality of any remedial and protective measures provided under this Policy to the extent practicable and will promptly address any violation of the protective measures. All individuals are encouraged to report concerns about failure of another individual to abide by any restrictions imposed by a supportive measure. The District will take immediate and responsive action to enforce a previously implemented restriction if such restriction was violated. These actions may be applied to the Reporting Party(ies), the Responding Party(ies), or to student groups. Actions can include, but are not limited to:

- A no-contact order placed between students, or between a student and another member of the college.
- Changes in academic and work schedules, and/or student groups/clubs/organizations.
- Assistance in requesting academic allowances, including rescheduling of exams and assignments.
- Providing alternative course completion options (with agreement of appropriate faculty).

- Issuance of a timely warning to college community.
- Providing academic support services, such as tutoring.
- Parking reassigned.
- Providing an escort to ensure safe movement between class and/or work locations on campus for Employees Interim Actions.
- A no-contact order placed between employees, or between an employee and another member of the college.
- Changes in work, duties assigned, work groups, office location, or supervision.
- Temporary suspension of duties.

Supportive measures may be requested by the victim and/or complainant verbally or in writing at the time of reporting or at any time during the investigation process. Such measures are available to all victims, including victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking. The victim or complainant may contact each respective Colleges' Title IX Coordinators with request for supportive measures.

Retaliation against any person, who in good faith, exercises their rights or responsibilities to file a complaint of discrimination, participates in an investigation, or opposes a discriminatory employment or educational practices or policies, under any provision of federal or state law, including Title IX, Title VII, and the VAWA or this policy, is strictly prohibited by District policy, and federal and state law. Retaliation against a Reporting Party, alleged victim (if different from the Reporting Party), Responding Party, and any witness, is, in itself, a violation of College policy and the law, and is a serious separate offense. Retaliation includes intimidating, threatening, coercing, and/or in any way discriminating against any person or group for exercising rights under these procedures. Retaliation may be present even where there is a finding of “Not Responsible” on the alleged violation of policy. A person who believes retaliation has occurred should notify the Title IX Team as soon as possible.

Disciplinary Procedures

Sexual Violence, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking violates the Student Code of Conduct BP 5500 and Board Policy 3540 and may violate federal and state laws. All investigations into these incidents will be carried out in accordance with AR 3435 (<https://www.rscdd.edu/Trustees/Pages/policies-and-regulations.aspx#Chapter3>). All investigations involving Title IX violations on the basis of sex will be carried out in accordance with AR3425 (<https://www.rscdd.edu/Trustees/Pages/policies-and-regulations.aspx#Chapter3>). Sanctions are imposed in accordance with current collective bargaining agreement, as well as the type of violation, factual circumstances, mitigating information, and case precedence. Procedures for disciplinary action in cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking are provided in writing. Sanctions include:

- WARNING – Verbal notice to the student or employee that continuation or repetition of specific conduct may be cause for other disciplinary action.
- REPRIMAND – Written reprimand for violation of District rules, with copy to the student or the employee and to the student or employee disciplinary file. A reprimand admonishes the offender to avoid any future infractions of District rules.
- PROBATION – Probation is a disciplinary action which allows the offender to return to the District with the understanding of expected appropriate future behavior. Probation may include exclusion of the individual(s) from extra-curricular District activities that would be set forth in the written notice of probation. The probation would be for a specified period and appropriate notice will be sent to any advisor(s) of student organizations(s) involved. Any further violations of the Standards of Student Conduct during this probationary period will result in further, more serious disciplinary action against the offender.
 - RESTITUTION – Reimbursement by the offender(s) for damage(s) or for the misappropriation of District property may take the form of appropriate community service to repair or otherwise compensate for damage(s) or loss.
 - SUSPENSION – The Board of Trustees, the Chancellor or the Chancellor’s designee may suspend a student or employee for good cause, as defined in Student Code of Conduct or the Collective Bargaining Agreement(s) for any of the following periods:

- From one or more classes for less than the remainder of the school term
- From one or more classes for the remainder of the school term
- From all classes and activities of the college for up to two (2) academic years
- Up to thirty (30) calendar days for employees
- During the period of the suspension, the student is prohibited from being enrolled in or physically present on any campus of the District for the period of the suspension. The Chancellor or designee may impose a lesser disciplinary sanction than suspension, including, but not limited to warning, reprimand, probation, restitution or ineligibility to participate in cocurricular activities or any combination of the listed options.
- EXPULSION – Expulsion may be for good cause (refer to Section I, A-V), when other means of correction fail to bring about proper conduct or when the presence of the student or employee causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the student or others.
 - Letter of Direction
 - Letter of Reprimand
 - Suspension
 - Termination
- REMOVAL – An instructor or department administrator may remove a student from their class or departmental service for up to two days and shall report all such action to the Academic Dean of the appropriate division and to the administrative designee responsible for student discipline. The administrative designee responsible for student discipline may suspend privileges from that class, campus service, office, department, or the entire campus based upon the violation for up to ten days.

During the period of the removal, the student shall not be returned to a class from which they were removed without the concurrence of the instructor and administrative designee responsible for student discipline; nor shall the student be returned to the service, department, office from which they were removed or the campus without concurrence of appropriate administrator. If the student is a minor, the college president, or designee shall ask the parent or guardian to attend a conference regarding the removal as soon as possible and if the parent so requests, the Dean of Student Affairs or designee at Santa Ana College or the Vice President of Student Services or designee at Santiago Canyon College shall attend (depending on the college).

The District shall ensure the prompt, fair, and impartial process from the initial investigation to the final result according to Administrative Regulations 3425 and 3435 (<https://www.rscdd.edu/Trustees/Pages/policies-and-regulations.aspx#Chapter3>).

On & Off Campus Resources

The Colleges will provide written notification to students and employees about existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other services available for victims both within the institution and in the community.

RSCCD, Santa Ana Police and Orange Police Departments also offer other important resources to the victims of sexual violence including medical treatment, counseling and advocacy. The Health and Wellness Centers at Santa Ana College (Johnson Center #110) or Santiago Canyon College (T-102) are available to assist any student or employee free of charge. The Health and Wellness Centers will also help them consider their options and navigate through any resources or recourse they elect to pursue. A victim need not make a formal report to law enforcement or RSCCD to access resources. Community resources for victims of sexual misconduct, stalking and intimate partner violence include:

Community Resource	Contact Number
Sexual Assault Victim Services	714-834-4317
Human Options	877-854-3594

Risk Reduction, Warning Signs Of Abusive Behavior And Future Attacks

No victim is EVER to blame for being assaulted or abused. Unfortunately, studies show that a person who is the victim of sexual or dating violence is more likely to be re-victimized.

Risk reduction means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitates evidence.

Here are some tips to help reduce your risk, to recognize warnings signs of abusive behavior and how to reduce the risk of a potential attack.

Warning Signs of Abusive Behavior

Domestic and dating abuse often escalates from threats and verbal abuse to violence. In addition, while physical injury may be the most obvious danger, the emotional and psychological consequences of domestic and dating violence are severe. Warning signs of dating and domestic violence include:

- Being afraid of your partner.
- Constantly watching what you say to avoid a “blow up”.
- Feelings of low self-worth and helplessness about your relationship.
- Feeling isolated from family or friends because of your relationship.
- Hiding bruises or other injuries from family or friends.
- Being prevented from working, studying, going home, and/or using technology (including your cell phone).
- Being monitored by your partner at home, work or school.
- Being forced to do things you do not want to do.

Help Reduce Your Risk and Avoid Potential Attacks

- If you are being abused or suspect that someone you know is being abused, speak up or intervene.
- Get help by contacting the Counseling Center or Health Center for support services.
- Learn how to look for “red flags” in relationships so you can learn to avoid some of those characteristics in future partners.
- Consider making a report with the District Safety & Security Department and/or the Title IX Coordinator and ask for a “no contact” directive from the District to prevent future contact.
- Consider getting a protection from abuse order or no contact order from a local judge or magisterial justice.
- Learn more about what behaviors constitute dating and domestic violence, understand it is not your fault, and talk with friends and family members about ways you can be supported.
- Trust your instincts—if something does not feel right in a relationship, speak up or end it.

Sexual Assault Prevention (From Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network, RAINN)

- Be aware of rape drugs.

- Try not to leave your drink unattended.
- Only drink from unopened containers or from drinks you have watched being made and poured. Avoid group drinks like punch bowls.
- Cover your drink. It is easy to slip in a small pill even while you are holding your drink. Hold a cup with your hand over the top, or choose drinks that are contained in a bottle and keep your thumb over the nozzle.
- If you feel extremely tired or drunk for no apparent reason, you may have been drugged. Find your friends and ask them to leave with you as soon as possible.
- If you suspect you have been drugged, go to a hospital and ask to be tested.
- Keep track of how many drinks you have consumed.
- Try to come and leave with a group of people you trust.
- Avoid giving out your personal information (phone number, where you live, etc.). If someone asks for your number, take their number instead of giving out yours.

Traveling around campus (walking)

- Make sure your cell phone is easily accessible and fully charged. Subscribe to Rave Guardian and use this free safety app. Be familiar with where emergency phones are installed on the campus. <https://www.raveguardian.com>
- Be aware of open buildings where you can use a phone.
- Take major, public paths rather than less populated short-cuts.
- Avoid dimly lit places and talk to Campus Safety if you believe that lights need to be installed in an area.
- Avoid putting music headphones in both ears so that you can be more aware of your surroundings, especially if you are walking alone.
- Walking throughout the campus late at night is sometimes unavoidable, so try to walk with a friend.
- Carry a noisemaker (like a whistle) on your keychain.
- Carry a small flashlight on your keychain.
- If walking feels unsafe, call Campus Safety.

Stalking

Stalking is behavior wherein an individual willfully and repeatedly engages in a knowing course of harassing conduct directed at another person, which reasonably and seriously alarms, torments or terrorizes that person. Stalking involves one person’s obsessive behavior toward another person. Initially, stalking will usually take the form of annoying, threatening, or obscene telephone calls, emails or letters. The calls may start with one or two a day but can quickly increase in frequency. Stalkers may conduct covert surveillance of the victim, following every move their target makes. Even the victim’s home may be staked out. Many will stop after they have been arrested, prosecuted and/or convicted. Unfortunately, laws do not stop most stalkers. Studies of stalkers indicate that they stop when their target is no longer available to them, or they find someone else to harass. Here are some strategies that might help you fight back and regain some control of your life:

- Notify the stalker to stop: Your attorney or you can send a registered letter to the stalker stating that they must stop the behavior immediately.
- Notify law enforcement: Request that law enforcement agencies log your complaint each time you call whether they respond or not. Request a copy of the report.
- Obtain a Protective Order: You will need to go to court to get a criminal warrant and then file for a protective order. While the stalker may not respect the order, the police are required to make an arrest if the order is violated.
- Document everything: Record any information that you or any witnesses can provide.
- Tell everyone: Give friends, neighbors, coworkers and family members a description of the stalker. Ask them to watch for the stalker, document everything listed above and give you a written account for your records.
- Take pictures: When you see the stalker, try to take a photo or videotape if it is safe to do so.
- Press charges: Call the police each time the stalker breaks a law. The stalker should be arrested, bonded, and then released. Request that one of the terms of the bond be that the stalker may not have any contact with you at all. Obtain copies of all documents and the name of the arresting officer.
- Save all communications: Save and date all cards, letters, notes, envelopes, e-mails, and voice messages that are from your stalker.
- Keep all legal documents: Obtain copies of protective orders, court orders, etc.
- Make it hard to track you down
 - Alter travel routes and routines.
 - Obtain a post office box.
 - Give your address and phone number to as few people as possible. Inform professional organizations that they are to provide no one with information about you.
 - Post a “No Trespassing” sign on the edge of your property where it is clearly visible.
 - Report any threatening calls to the telephone company.
 - Report to the FBI all threats sent by mail.
- If you move;
 - Do not ask the post office to forward your mail. Have them hold it for you.
 - Take all important records with you: your (and your children’s) medical, financial, academic records, Social Security cards, green cards, passports, driver’s licenses, etc.
 - Take a self-defense class. You may find that you feel more empowered and self-sufficient, even if you never employ the techniques that you learn in your class.

Bystander Intervention (The 4Ds)

Please remember that your safety is of the utmost importance. When a situation threatens physical harm to yourself or another student ask someone for help or contact the police.

1. Direct – Step in and address the situation directly. This might look like saying, “That’s not cool. Please stop.” or “Hey, leave them alone.” This technique tends to work better when the person that you are trying to stop is someone that knows and trusts you. It does not work well when drugs or alcohol are being used because someone’s ability to have a conversation with you about what is going on may be impaired and they are more likely to become defensive.
2. Distract – Distract either person in the situation to intervene. This might look like saying, “Hey, aren’t you in my Spanish class?” or “Who wants to go get pizza?” This technique is especially useful when drugs or alcohol are being used because people under the influence are more easily distracted than those that are sober.
3. Delegate – Find others who can help you to intervene in the situation. This might look like asking a friend to distract one person in the situation while you distract the other (“splitting” or “defensive split”), asking someone to go sit with them and talk, or going and starting a dance party right in the middle of their conversation. If you did not know either person in the situation, you could also ask around to see if someone else does and check in with them. See if they can go talk to their friend, text their friend to check in or intervene.
4. Delay – For many reasons, you may not be able to do something right in the moment. For example, if you are feeling unsafe or if you are unsure whether someone in the situation is feeling unsafe, you may just want to check in with the person. In this case, you can combine a distraction technique by asking the person to use the bathroom with you or go get a drink with you to separate them from the person that they are talking with. Then, this might look like asking them, “Are you okay?” or “How can I help you get out of this situation?” This could also look like texting the person, either in the situation or after you see them leave and asking, “Are you okay?” or “Do you need help?”

Prevention, Education and Awareness

Rancho Santiago Community College District prohibits the crimes of dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking as defined for purposes of the Clery Act, which includes the following definitions:

- Dating violence means violence committed, on the basis of sex, by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the Complainant. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: The length of the relationship, the type of relationship and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. For the purposes of this definition, dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

- Domestic violence means conduct, on the basis of sex, that includes the requisite components of felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by (a) a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim; (b) a person with whom the victim shares a child in common; (c) a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse; (d) a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under California law; or (e) any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under California law.
- Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking, as defined herein.
 - o Sexual assault means any sexual act (forcible or non-forcible), directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent. Sexual acts include the following:
 - o Rape, which is defined as the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the Complainant.
 - o Sodomy, which is defined as oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person, forcibly committed and/or against that person's will (nonconsensually), or not forcibly or against the person's will in instances in which the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
 - o Sexual Assault with an Object, which is defined as the use of an object or instrument to penetrate, however slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, forcibly and/or against that person's will (nonconsensually), or not forcibly or against the person's will in instances in which the Complainant is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

- o Fondling, which is defined as the touching of the private parts of another person for the purposes of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of age or because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.
- o Incest, which is defined as sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
- o Statutory Rape, which is defined as sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.
- Stalking means a course of conduct directed at a specific person on the basis of sex that would cause a reasonable person to fear for the person's safety or the safety of others, or to suffer substantial emotional distress. For the purposes of this definition: (a) A course of conduct is two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the Respondent directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person's property; (b) Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the Complainant; and (c) Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.
- Consent, in reference to sexual activity, means affirmative, conscious, and voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity. It is the responsibility of each person involved in the sexual activity to ensure that they have the affirmative consent of the other to engage in the sexual activity. Lack of protest or resistance does not mean consent, nor does silence mean consent. Affirmative consent must be ongoing throughout a sexual activity and can be revoked at any time. The existence of a relationship between the persons involved, or past sexual relations between them, should never by itself be assumed to be an indicator of consent. If coercion, intimidation, threats or physical force is used there is no consent. If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated and cannot understand the fact, nature or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent. This includes incapacitation due to alcohol or drug consumption, or being asleep or unconscious. Inducement of incapacitation of another with the intent to affect the ability of an individual to consent or refuse to consent to sexual contact, negates consent.

The District has implemented preventive education programs to promote the awareness of District policies against Sexual Violence (including Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking) and to make victim resources available, including comprehensive victim services. <https://rscdd.edu/Departments/TitleIX/Pages/default.aspx>

The following preventative education programs, as described, are currently being presented to the District community each year through partnerships with faculty members:

The Clothesline Project was started by women in Massachusetts as a way to "air the dirty laundry" of sexual assault and give survivors a productive, artistic outlet for their anger and emotions.

Denim Day is an event in which people are encouraged to wear jeans to raise awareness of rape and sexual assault.

Yoga on the Lawn is a one-hour "Healing Yoga" session to heal through the practice of yoga; and will aim to empower all participants to establish a sense of comfort within their physical bodies and nonverbally process any thoughts, feelings, and sensations.

Our Bodies Our Minds is an initiative to use theater as a way to help those impacted by sexual violence and the community to heal.

Education and Prevention Programs

RSCCD engages in comprehensive educational programming to prevent domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking. Educational programming consists of primary prevention and awareness programs for all incoming students and new employees that:

- Identifies domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, retaliation, gender/sex discrimination, and stalking as prohibited conduct;
- Defines what behavior constitutes domestic violence, dating violence, retaliation, sexual assault, and stalking;
- Defines what behavior and actions constitute consent to sexual activity in the State of California;
- Provides safe and positive options for bystander intervention that may be carried out by an individual to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against a person other than the bystander;
- Provides information on risk reduction so that students and employees may recognize warning signs of abusive behavior and how to minimize the risk of potential attacks;
- Provides an overview of information contained in the Annual Security Report in compliance with the Clery Act.
- RSCCD has developed an annual educational campaign consisting of presentations that include distribution of educational materials to new students; participating in and presenting information and materials during new employee orientation; presenting programs throughout the year on at least a quarterly basis, including sessions such as:
 - Speakers on Healthy Relationships & Sexual Assault
 - Training on Bystander Intervention

Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Programs offered included:

- “Title IX: “Roles of Employees” available on Keenan Safe Colleges Training website. <https://rscdd-keenana.safecolleges.com/>
- “Title IX and Sexual Harassment Prevention for Employees” available on the Keenan Safe Colleges Training website. <https://rscdd-keenana.safecolleges.com/>

RSCCD will provide the results of the disciplinary hearing to the victim’s next of kin if so request.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

RSCCD has developed a comprehensive, all-hazard Emergency Operations Plan that outlines steps the District will take to prevent and mitigate, prepare for, respond to, and recover from a full range of likely hazards our campuses may face. An Emergency Procedures Guideline is posted on the RSCCD, Santa Ana College and Santiago Canyon College websites. It contains basic instructions for employees and students to respond to various emergency incidents.

Click to view the Emergency Operations Plan or Emergency Response Plan - Administrative Regulation 3505. Emergency Operations Plan and Administrative Regulation 3505 can be viewed from the RSCCD’s website.

The Emergency Operations Plan is the District’s planned response to all hazards on or affecting the campus or surrounding community. The plan will be activated by the District Chancellor, College Presidents or their Designees. The emergency operations plan details actions and responsibilities for all employees of the District including those assigned to the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) staff.

To ensure these plans remain current and actionable, RSCCD will work with each college campus/centers to conduct an emergency management exercise at least once a year. These exercises may include evacuations, lockdown drills, the Great Shakeout Earthquake Drill, tabletop exercises, and/or full-scale emergency response exercises which will conclude with an after-action debrief.

When the campuses/centers are evacuated, staff and students gather at designated assembly areas at a safe distance from the buildings to await further instructions. Employee volunteers who serve as building captains and floor wardens have been provided training to ensure their areas have been evacuated and that injured persons and safety hazards are reported.

RSCCD has designated employees at the District office, Santa Ana College and Santiago Canyon College, who are members of their site’s emergency response organization. The District provides training for these employees on the Incident Command System (ICS) at every site and uses the ICS principles when responding to emergencies. In addition to evacuation exercises, RSCCD conducts other emergency preparedness activities, including tabletop exercises to evaluate the effectiveness of the emergency response plans.

All members of the campus community are notified on an annual basis that they should call 911 or the District Safety & Security Department of any incident on campus that involves a significant emergency or dangerous situation that may involve an immediate or ongoing threat to the health and safety of students or employees on campus. The District Safety & Security Department has the responsibility of responding to, and summoning the necessary resources, to mitigate, investigate, and document these types of incidents and to determine if the situation does in fact, pose a threat to the community. If so, federal law requires that the institution immediately notify the campus community or the appropriate segments of the community that may be affected by the situation.

Government Code Sections 3100-3101 state that all employees of the District are declared Disaster Service Workers during emergencies, subject to such activities as may be assigned to them. Federal and state regulations further state that all employees of the District must be trained and qualified in specified Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) courses depending on an employee’s emergency response responsibilities.

Emergency Notification System

In the event of a situation that poses an immediate threat to members of the campus community, the college has various systems in place for communicating information quickly. The District will determine the content of the message and will use some or all of the systems described below to communicate the threat to the appropriate segments of the campus community, unless issuing a notification will, in the judgment of the first responders, compromise the efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. First responders include but not limited to District Safety & Security Department, Law Enforcement and Fire Department.

These methods of communication include; e-mail, text messaging, phone notifications, and public address system. The District will post updates during a critical incident on the District website and via the other forms of emergency notifications. The District uses Rave Mobile Safety for the issuing of emergency notifications and timely warnings. All staff, faculty and currently enrolled students are automatically included in any emergency notifications.

The District’s Chief Communications Officer will be responsible for the dissemination of emergency information to the larger community through press releases, website updates, and social media updates.

Initiating The Emergency Notification System

The District Safety & Security Department and/or other campus first responders may become aware of a critical incident or other emergency that potentially affects the health and/ or safety of the campus community. Generally, campus first responders become aware of these situations when they are reported to the District Safety & Security Department or upon discovery by a Campus Safety Officer during patrol or other assignments. Once first responders confirm there is, in fact, an emergency or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety to the campus community, first responders will notify the District Safety & Security Department or other authorized college officials to issue an emergency notification.

RSCCD has authorized representatives, including supervisors in the District Safety & Security Department, officials in the Office of Communications and Publications, and/or other members of the RSCCD’s administration, to initiate all or some portions of the RSCCD’s emergency notification system. They will, without delay, take into account the safety of the campus community, determine the content of the notification, and initiate the notification system.

If, in the professional judgment of first responders, issuing a notification potentially compromises efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency, RSCCD may elect to delay issuing an emergency notification. As soon as the condition that may compromise efforts is no longer present, RSCCD will issue the emergency notification to the campus community or applicable segment of the community.

Target Audience For Emergency Notification

District Safety Officers and local first responders on the scene of a critical incident or dangerous situation that poses an immediate threat to the health or safety of the campus community will assist those preparing the emergency notification. They will assist determining what segment or segments of the campus community should receive the notification. Generally, campus community members in the immediate area of the dangerous situation (i.e. the building, adjacent buildings, or surrounding area) will receive the emergency notification first.

RSCCD may issue subsequent notifications to a wider group of community members. In addition to the emergency notification that may be issued via the mass notification system, RSCCD will also post applicable messages about the dangerous condition on the college campuses’ homepage to ensure the rest of the campus community is aware of the situation and the steps they should take to maintain personal and campus safety. If the emergency affects a significant portion of, or the entire community, RSCCD officials will distribute the notification to the entire campus community.

Contents Of The Emergency Notification

For those emergencies when the RSCCD ICS team is in command, the employee designated as the incident commander will normally make the decision to notify the campus community. Employees who are designated as the incident commander will vary from site to site, but may include the Vice Chancellors, College Presidents, Vice Presidents, Deans, Chief, Lieutenants and Sergeants of the District Safety & Security Department, and the Risk Manager as well as their designees. The office responsible for issuing the emergency notification will determine the content of the notification.

RSCCD has developed a wide range of template messages addressing several different emergencies. These methods of communications include the mass notification system Rave Mobile Safety, which utilizes both text and email. We may also use verbal announcements within buildings, public address systems, and fire alarms. Those issuing the alert will select the template message most appropriate to the on-going situation and modify it to address the specifics of the current incident.

Those issuing the notification will use the following guidelines when determining the contents of the emergency notification.

The first message is intended to alert the campus community or appropriate segment of the campus community of the dangerous condition and the actions they should take to safeguard theirs and their neighbor’s safety. Messages distributed in this stage of a rapidly unfolding critical incident will generally be short, precise, and directive.

The second message is intended to inform the community or appropriate segment of the campus community about additional details of the situation. This message is gener-ally distributed once first responders and the Emergency Operations Center has additional information about the dangerous situation.

Testing Emergency Response and Evacuation Procedures

Evacuation drills are coordinated by the District Safety & Security Department at least twice a year for the entire District. These drills are scheduled to take place in the Fall and Spring semesters. Students and staff learn the locations of the emergency exits in the buildings and are provided guidance about the direction they should travel when exiting each facility for a short-term building evacuation. Each campus has pre-designated locations for evacuation and publishes these on their website and in other emergency plans. These locations can be affected by time of day, location of the building being evacuated, and other factors such as the location and nature of the threat. The District Safety & Security Department and District staff on the scene will communicate information to students regarding the developing situation or any evacuation status changes.

Evacuation drills are monitored by the District Safety & Security Department and District administration to evaluate egress and behavioral patterns. Reports are prepared by participating departments which identify deficient equipment so that repairs can be made immediately. Recommendations for improvements are also submitted to the appropriate departments and offices for consideration.

ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG POLICIES, PREVENTION PROGRAMS AND DRUG FREE ENVIRONMENT

Federal law requires RSCCD to notify all faculty, staff, and students of certain information pertaining to the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol on its property or as part of its activities. The information included in this report complies with the notification requirements of the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act and regulations.

RSCCD prohibits the unlawful possession, use, manufacturing or distribution of alcohol or controlled substances by students, faculty, staff, and guests in buildings, facilities, grounds or property controlled by RSCCD or used as part of RSCCD activities. For students, this includes prohibiting the possession and consumption of any beverage containing alcohol on campuses. In addition, the smoking of any material including electronic cigarettes is prohibited in all campus areas including District owned, rented or leased properties and vehicles, except in designated parking lot areas and within 20 feet of entrances, exits, and operable windows. Using or being under the influence of unauthorized drugs while attending District approved functions is also prohibited. Violation of this policy will constitute cause for disciplinary action. RSCCD will impose sanctions for violation of this policy, which may include completion of an appropriate rehabilitation program, expulsion from school, or referral to the authorities for prosecution. All federal and state drug and alcohol laws will be enforced.

In accordance with Public Law 101-226, “Drug Free Schools and Communities Act Amendment of 1989”, the Board of Trustees of Rancho Santiago Community College District, prohibits the unlawful possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs or alcohol by students, employees and guests. The unlawful manufacturing, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of a controlled substance is prohibited in all facilities under the control and use of the District. Any student or employee who violates this policy (Administrative Regulations 3550) will be subject to disciplinary action (Administrative Regulation 5500 Standards of Student Code) (consistent with local, state, or federal law), which may include referral to an appropriate rehabilitation program, the Employee Assistance Program, suspension, demotion, expulsion or dismissal, and may also be subject to criminal prosecution and sanctions including fines, jail, or prison sentences.

The Deans of Student Development and Deputy Title IX Coordinator will handle student disciplinary action, the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources will be responsible for employee disciplinary action, and the Chief of District Safety & Security Department will work with the local law enforcement authorities for criminal sanctions. Awareness of this policy will help create a drug and alcohol free environment. This policy and regulation are available to students and employees on the District and college websites. It will also be included in the Annual Security Report.

Prevention And Awareness Programs

RSCCD emphasizes the prevention and intervention of substance abuse through education. The college campuses will provide information about the dangers of drugs and alcohol and will engage in prevention programs through efforts by the Student Services offices, the Health Centers, the District Safety & Security Department and Risk Management. At Santa Ana College, alcohol & other prescription drug education and awareness programs offer students the opportunity to learn about prescription & other nonprescription drug abuse and impaired driving involving drugs and alcohol. Discussion topics include informed decision-making, alcohol myths, serving sizes, alcohol overdose, underage drinking, drinking and driving prevention, cost of DUI through individual consultations, and campus wide tabling events.

Santa Ana College - All college community members play an important role in helping others get the assistance they need, and thus, the college established a CARE Team responsible for reviewing behaviors of concern and developing appropriate responses and referrals for treatment and additional assistance for excessive use of drugs and/or alcohol and other signs indicating the person is experiencing personal challenges. The Health and Wellness Center offers a wide variety of educational opportunities and medical and mental health support to address the hazards of smoking, alcohol, and other drug-related issues. This includes campuswide awareness activities, health fairs, workshops, pamphlets, and online resources tools. As part of our commitment to opioid overdose prevention, the college partnered with CalOptima to host a Health Awareness Fair and facilitated informational presentations, which include Naloxone training and distribution of Opioid Overdose Harm Reduction Kits. The kits include fentanyl strips, two doses of Narcan and substance abuse resource information. Health and Wellness medical professionals and psychologist are available, in person and virtually, to discuss the health hazards associated with alcohol, substance abuse, smoking/vaping and smokeless tobacco products. Clinical treatment, including short term therapy and wellness workshops are offered for additional support.

Santiago Canyon College is dedicated to a holistic approach Santiago Canyon College is dedicated to a holistic approach in supporting student well-being through comprehensive physical and therapeutic care. The college has an established CARE Team to assist students demonstrating signs of needing support through referrals by college personnel and/or peers. There are available resources for students dealing with addiction, including access to on campus mental health providers, as well as community partnerships for ongoing chronic care. The emergency opioid-reversal agent Narcan (naloxone), fentanyl test strips, and spiked beverage test kits are also available for free to students within the health center. The campus has also partnered with a telehealth organization to provide 24/7 medical and psychological care for all enrolled students at no additional cost; this resource can be accessible via computer, phone or video call. These resources provide supplementary services and counseling for students who may not be able to physically access the Student Health Center during non-operating hours, weekends or observed holidays. Information regarding telehealth services can be found on the SCC webpage.

The SAC and SCC Student Health Centers operate under a team of Licensed Clinical Psychologists, Registered Nurses, Nurse Practitioner, Physician Associate, and a Medical Doctor. Our licensed Providers are trained to help students navigate their physical and mental health. Students can meet with a provider to discuss any physical or mental health concern they may have, in a completely confidential setting. Student Health Center is a short term facility. Students with long term or chronic conditions can receive community referrals for long term, on-going care from our Providers.

Drug Free Environment and Drug Prevention Programs (Administrative Regulation 3550)

The District is committed to providing its employees and students with a drug free workplace and campus environment. It emphasizes prevention and intervention through education.

The District shall be free from the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by students, employees and guests. Awareness of this policy will help create a drug and alcohol-free environment. This policy and regulation shall be published and be made available to students and employees on the district and college websites, including the employee intranet, Admissions and Records, the Health Centers, Student Services and Safety and Security. It will also be included in the Annual Security report, the college Catalogs, the Student Handbooks and Schedule of Classes.

The District emphasizes the prevention and intervention of substance abuse through education. The colleges will provide information about the dangers of drugs and alcohol and will engage in prevention programs through efforts by the Student Services offices, the Health Centers, District Safety and Security, and Risk Management.

Health risks associated with use of illicit drugs and the abuse of alcohol include: death; injury; unprotected sex and possible sexually transmitted disease; non-consensual sex; increased risk of suicide; and driving under the influence.

Violators of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action, which may include referral to an appropriate rehabilitation program, the Employee Assistance Program, suspension, demotion, expulsion or dismissal, and may also be subject to criminal prosecution and sanctions including fines, jail, or prison sentences. The Deans of Student Development and Deputy Title IX Coordinator will handle student disciplinary action, the Vice Chancellor of Human Resources will be responsible for employee disciplinary action, and Director of District Safety and Security will work with local law enforcement agencies for criminal sanctions.

Prohibition of Drugs

The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession or use of alcohol or any controlled substance is prohibited on District property, during District-sponsored field trips, activities or workshops, and in any facility or vehicle operated by the District.

Violation of this prohibition will result in appropriate action up to and including termination of employment, expulsion, and referral for prosecution, or as permitted by law, may require satisfactory participation in an alcohol or drug abuse assistance or rehabilitation program.

As a condition of employment, employees must notify the District within five days of any conviction for violating a criminal drug statute while in the workplace. The District is required to inform any agencies that require this drug-free policy within ten days after receiving notice of a workplace drug conviction.

Opioid Overdose

The District shall provide, as part of established campus orientations, educational and preventive information provided by the State Department of Public Health about opioid overdose and the use and location of opioid overdose reversal medication to students at all campuses. Each campus health center shall apply to distribute dosages of a federally approved opioid overdoes reversal medication and participate in the Naloxone Distribution Project administered by the State Department of Health Care Services.

Standards of Student Conduct Administrative Regulation 5500

The Rancho Santiago Community College District may impose discipline for the commission, or attempted commission, of the following types of violations by students or for aiding or abetting, inciting, conspiring, assisting, hiring, or encouraging another person to engage in a violation of the Standards of Student Conduct, or for any violation of state or federal law.

The following conduct shall constitute good cause for discipline, including but not limited to the removal, suspension, or expulsion of a student for code of conduct violations pertaining to alcohol and drugs:

- Use, unlawful possession, distribution, furnishing or being under the influence of alcoholic beverage or an intoxicant of any kind on district property or at any district sponsored event.
- Use, unlawful possession, distribution, furnishing, or being under the influence of any controlled substance listed in California Health and Safety Code Sections 11053 et seq. or unlawful possession of, or offering, arranging or negotiating the sale of any drug paraphernalia, as defined in California Health and Safety Code Sections 11014.5.

Board Policy and the complete Administrative Regulation for Standards of Student Conduct can be found on the RSCCD website. Click here to view Board Policy 5500 or Administrative Regulation 5500.

Alcohol Beverages Administrative Regulation 3560

The possession, sale or the furnishing of alcohol on campus is governed by California state law and these regulations. The possession, sale, consumption or furnishing of alcohol is controlled by the California Department of Alcohol and Beverage Control. However, the enforcement of alcohol laws on campus is the primary responsibility of the Chief, District Safety & Security. The campus has been designated “Drug free” and only under certain circumstances is the consumption of alcohol permitted. The possession, sale, manufacture or distribution of any controlled substance is illegal under both state and federal laws. Such laws are strictly enforced by the Chief, District Safety & Security. Violators are subject to disciplinary action, criminal prosecution, fine and imprisonment. It is unlawful to sell, furnish or provide alcohol to a person under the age of 21. The possession of alcohol by anyone under 21 years of age in a public place or a place open to the public is illegal. It is also a violation of this regulation for anyone to consume or possess alcohol in any public or private area of campus without prior District approval. Organizations or groups violating alcohol or substance policies or laws may be subject to sanctions by the District.

Alcoholic beverages on campus are permitted if:

- The alcoholic beverage is for use during a non-college event at a performing arts facility built on District property and leased to a nonprofit public benefit corporation.
- The alcoholic beverage is possessed, consumed, or sold, pursuant to a license or permit obtained for special events held at the facilities of a public community college during the special event. “Special event” means events that are held with the permission of the governing board of the community college district that are festivals, shows, private parties, concerts, theatrical productions, and other events held on the premises of the public community college and for which the principal attendees are members of the gen-eral public or invited guests and not students of the public community college.
- The alcoholic beverage is acquired, possessed, or used during an event sponsored by the District or an organiza-tion operated for the benefit of the District at a community college-owned facility in which any grade from kindergar-ten to grade 12, inclusive, is taught, if the event is held at a time when students in any grades from kindergarten to grade 12, inclusive, are not present at the facility.
- The alcoholic beverage is for use during a fundraiser held to benefit a nonprofit corporation that has obtained a license under the Business and Professions Code to do so provided that no alcoholic beverage can be acquired, possessed or used at a football game or other athletic contest sponsored by RSCCD.
- The alcoholic beverage is acquired, possessed, or con-sumed pursuant to a license or permit obtained for special events held at facilities of a community college district at a time when pupils are not on the grounds. “Facilities” includes, but are not limited to, office com-plexes, confer-ence centers, or retreat facilities.

Alcohol and Drug Laws and Sanctions

California law prohibits furnishing and selling alcoholic beverages to minors (younger than 21) or obviously intoxicated individuals. Any person under 21 years of age who possesses any alcoholic beverage on any street or highway or in any public place or in any place open to the public is guilty of a misdemeanor. The penalties for violations of these laws may include substantial fines and jail. Alcohol may not be sold without a license or permit. State law also prohibits driving a motor vehicle under the influence (a blood alcohol level of .08 percent or higher creates a presumption of intoxication, but one can be charged with lower blood alcohol levels); drinking or possessing an open container of alcohol while driving; and operating a bicycle while intoxicated. Drunken driving penalties include jail or prison, fines of $1,000 or more, driver’s license suspension or revocation, and required drug/alcohol treatment programs. Refusing to submit to a test for blood alcohol can result in suspension of driver’s license for up to 3 years. Sale or possession for sale of controlled substances such as cocaine, methamphetamines, heroin, ecstasy, GHB, ketamine, LSD, PCP, marijuana, and designer drugs is prohibited by law. Sentences are enhanced for previously convicted felons, for distribution within 1,000 feet of a school or university or within 100 feet of a recreational facility, and for distribution to a pregnant woman or to someone under 18 by one over 18. Property used in drug transactions can be seized.

Emergencies

If you suspect that someone needs medical attention or is in need of other assistance, it is important that you call for help, dial 911. Medical attention is warranted whenever there is a serious injury or illness.

How alcohol affects the individual will depend on the drinker’s tolerance level; a heavy drinker may not be at medical risk at .08%, but a novice or social drinker could be in serious danger.

The following situations caused by alcohol consumption are indicators that the individual needs immediate medical assistance or professional evaluation.

The individual may show the following symptoms:

- Vomiting, causing the person to choke or stop breathing
- Passed out or in a stupor
- Fever or chills
- Difficulty speaking or breathing
- An injury
- Unable to stand or walk, or can do so only with difficulty
- Poorly aware of their surroundings
- Obnoxious, unruly or reported to have consumed a large quantity of alcohol, or chugged, or ingested other sedating or tranquilizing drugs within the last 30 minutes.

Smoking and Tobacco Use in District Facilities

Administrative Regulation 3570

Smoking is prohibited in all campus areas including all District owned, rented or leased properties and vehicles, except in designated parking lot areas and within 20 feet of entrances, exits, and operable windows.

Smoking is defined as the use of products containing tobacco and/or nicotine, including but not limited to smokeless tobacco, clove cigarettes, or any other smoking products, and any and all electronic or “e-cigarettes”, which is an unapproved nicotine delivery device, unregulated by the FDA.

Public performances in which smoking is an integral and necessary part of the production are excluded from these regulations.

These regulations apply to employees, students, visitors and all other persons who use District owned or rented/leased facilities and vehicles. Failure to comply with these regulations may result in disciplinary action.

It is the responsibility of every District employee to comply with these regulations and report violations to District Safety.

These regulations do not supersede more restrictive policies which may be in force under State and Federal regulations.

Bias Categories
Race	A preformed negative attitude toward a group of persons who possess common physical characteristics, genetically transmitted by descent and heredity which distinguish them as a distinct division of humankind.
Religion	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons who share the same religious beliefs regarding the origin and purpose of the universe and the existence or nonexistence of a supreme being.
Sexual Orientation	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their actual or perceived sexual orientation. Sexual Orientation is the term for a person’s physical, romantic, and/or emotional attraction to members of the same and/or opposite sex, including lesbian, gay, bisexual, and heterosexual (straight) individuals.
Gender	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a person or group of persons based on their actual or perceived gender.
Gender Identity	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a person or group of persons based on their actual or perceived gender identity. Gender non-conforming describes a person who does not conform to the gender-based expectations of society. A gender non-conforming person may or may not be a lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender person but may be perceived as such.
Ethnicity	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of people whose members identify with each other, through a common heritage, often consisting of a common language, common culture (often including a shared religion) and/or ideology that stresses common ancestry. The concept of ethnicity differs from the closely related term “race” in that “race” refers to a grouping based mostly upon biological criteria, while “ethnicity” also encompasses additional cultural factors.
National Origin	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of people based on their actual or perceived country of birth. This bias may be against people that have a name or accent associated with a national origin group, participate in certain customs associated with a national origin group, or because they are married to or associate with people of a certain group origin.
Disability	A preformed negative opinion or attitude toward a group of persons based on their physical or mental impairments, whether such disability is temporary or permanent, congenital or acquired by heredity, accident, injury, advanced age or illness.

ANNUAL DISCLOSURE OF CRIME STATISTICS

Jeanne Clery Disclosure Of Campus Security Policy And Campus Crime Statistics Act

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act or Clery Act, signed in 1990, is a federal statute codified at 20 U.S.C. § 1092, with implementing regulations in the U.S. Code of Federal Regulations at 34 CFR 668.46. This policy requires colleges and universities across the United States to disclose information about crime on and around their campuses. District Safety & Security Department collects the Clery crime statistics disclosed in the following charts (pages 44-59) through a number of methods. District Safety & Security Department maintains a close relationship with all police departments where RSCCD owns or controls property to ensure that crimes reported directly to these police departments that involve RSCCD are brought to the attention of RSCCD. In addition to collecting Clery crime statistics from local police departments, all reports of crime incidents made directly to the District Safety & Security Department (through dispatchers and officers) are entered into an integrated computer aided-dispatch systems/records management system. The entries are recorded in the system in accordance with the crime definitions outlined in the FBI Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook and the FBI National Incident-Based Reporting System Handbook (sex offenses only). To ensure each report is appropriately classified in the correct crime category, after a dispatcher or officer enters the report in the system, a department supervisor reviews the report to ensure it is appropriately classified. The department also periodically examines data in the system for appropriate classification.

In addition to the crime data that the District Safety & Security Department maintains, RSCCD collects Clery crime statistics of reports made to various campus security authorities as defined in this report. The statistics reported in the following charts reflect the number of criminal incidents reported to the various Campus Security Authorities. The statistics reported for the subcategories on liquor law violations, drug abuse violations, and illegal weapons possession represent the number of people arrested or referred to campus judicial authorities for respective violations, not the number of offenses documented.

Definitions Of Reportable Crimes

Statistics are disclosed separately for each of the following four general categories. If an incident meets definitions in more than one of these categories, it will be reported for each category.

1. Criminal Offenses:

- Murder/Manslaughter – defined as the willful killing of one human being by another.
- Negligent Manslaughter – defined as the killing of another person through gross negligence.
- Sexual Assault (Sex Offenses) – any sexual act directed against another person, without consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent.
 - Rape is the penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus, with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the victim.
 - Fondling is the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of their age or because of their temporary or permanent mental incapacity.
 - Incest is sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law.
 - Statutory Rape is sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.
- Robbery – defined as taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.
- Aggravated Assault – defined as an unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm.

- Burglary – unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft.
- Motor Vehicle Theft – theft or attempted theft of a motor vehicle.
- Arson – any willful or malicious burning or attempt to burn, with or without intent to defraud, a dwelling house, public building, motor vehicle or aircraft, personal property of another, etc.

2. Hate Crimes

The Clery Act defines hate crimes as criminal offenses that manifests evidence that the victim was intentionally selected because of the perpetrator’s bias against the victim (see Bias Categories Chart). Hate crimes include criminal homicide, sex offenses, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft and arson, plus the following crimes:

- Larceny/Theft – the unlawful taking, carrying, leading or riding away of property from the possession or constructive possession of another. Constructive possession is the condition in which a person does not have physical custody or possession, but is in a position to exercise dominion or control over a thing.
- Simple Assault – unlawful physical attack by one person upon another where neither the offender displays a weapon, nor the victim suffers obvious severe or aggravated bodily injury involving apparent broken bones, loss of teeth, possible internal injury, severe laceration or loss of consciousness .
- Intimidation – to unlawfully place another person in reasonable fear of bodily harm through the use of threatening words and/or other conduct but without displaying a weapon or subjecting the victim to actual physical attack.
- Destruction/Damage/Vandalism of Property – to willfully or maliciously destroy, damage, deface, or otherwise injure real or personal property without the consent of the owner or the person having custody or control of it .

3. Violence Against Women Act (VAWA Offenses):

- Dating Violence - defined as violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting party’s statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.
 - Dating violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.
 - Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.
- Domestic Violence – is defined as a felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed:
 - By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim.

- By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common.
- By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner.
- By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.
- By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.
- Stalking – is defined as engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to; fear for the person’s safety or the safety of others and suffer substantial emotional distress.
 - Course of conduct – means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, in-directly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicate to or about a person, or interferes with a person’s property.
 - Reasonable person – means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.
 - Substantial emotional distress – means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

4. Arrest and Referrals for Disciplinary Action

Statistics must be reported for the following violations of the law that occurred and resulted in arrests or persons being referred for disciplinary actions.

Arrest – defined as persons processed by arrest, citation or summons.

Referred for campus disciplinary action – defined as the referral of any person to any official who initiates a disciplinary action of which a record is established and which may result in the imposition of a sanction.

Violations of law definitions:

- Weapons (Carrying, Possessing) – defined as the violation of laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession, concealment, or use of firearms, cutting instruments, explosives, incendiary devices or other deadly weapons.
- Drug Abuse Violations – defined as the violation of laws prohibiting the production, distribution and/or use of certain controlled substances and the equipment or devices utilized in their preparation and/or use. The unlawful cultivation, manufacture, distribution, sale, purchase, use possession, transportation or importation of any controlled drug or narcotic substance. Arrests for violations of state and local laws, specifically those relating to the unlawful possession, sale, use, growing, manufacturing and making of narcotics drugs.

- Liquor Law Violations – defined as the violation of state or local laws or ordinances prohibiting the manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, possession or use of alcoholic beverages, not including driving under the influence and drunkenness.

Clery Act Geography Definitions

The following definitions as defined in 34 CFR 668.46(a), apply to the geographical locations of incidents disclosed in the crime statistics tables contained in this report:

On-Campus: Any building or property owned or controlled by an institution within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area and used by the institution in direct support of, or in a manner related to, the institution’s educational purposes, including residence halls; and any building or property that is within or reasonably contiguous to the property described above in this definition, that is owned by the institution but controlled by another person, is frequently used by students, and supports institutional purposes (such as a food or other retail vendor).

Non-Campus: Any building or property owned or controlled by a student organization that is officially recognized by the institution; or any building or property owned or controlled by an institution that is used in direct support of, or in relation to, the institution’s educational purposes, is frequently used by students, and is not within the same reasonably contiguous geographic area of the institution.

Public Property: All public property, including thoroughfares, streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities, that is within the campus, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.
