

Easy and Affordable Ticket Defense

Each year, 41 million drivers are issued traffic citations.¹

That's more than 112,000 people who get pulled over every day. Chances are, you'll find yourself facing those flashing blue lights one day, too.

Thankfully, the Hyatt Legal Plan allows you to travel through life with ease, knowing you have affordable access to professional legal services for the most common traffic offenses.*

With the Hyatt Legal Plan, you can seek the legal assistance you need without worrying about excessive legal fees and whether or not you can afford representation. It's one small monthly fee, deducted from your paycheck. There are no deductibles, co-pays, claim forms or usage limits when using a network attorney.

Should you receive a traffic ticket, you can consult with an attorney who can explain the charges and options available to you and guide you through the appropriate actions to properly resolve the matter. If you and the attorney decide to contest the violation, the attorney can represent you in court and attempt to negotiate for a more favorable decision on your behalf.

All of this, for just a small monthly fee.

Prepare for life's unexpected bumps in the road, like traffic matters.
Protect yourself with an affordable Hyatt Legal Plan.
