Nominations Sought for 2011 Santa Ana College Hall of Fame

(Santa Ana)—The Santa Ana College (SAC) Foundation is seeking nominations for its 2011 Hall of Fame honoring outstanding alumni achievement. The deadline for nominations is Friday, February 25, 2011 at 5:00 p.m.

Introduced in 1955, the SAC Hall of Fame documents the contributions made by more than 170 outstanding SAC alumni in many fields. The SAC Foundation welcomes nominations of any alumni who have made significant contributions to their profession and/or to the local or global community. Recipients will be honored at an induction ceremony on Friday, May 20, and will also be recognized at the college's spring commencement ceremony.

The selection criteria for this honor are:

- Graduation from Santa Ana College or completion of a minimum of 30 units of coursework at SAC;
- Documented distinction and achievement through professional and/or personal efforts since leaving Santa Ana College; and
- Recipients must be available to attend the awards ceremony and commencement.

Last year's inductees include:

- Dr. Ruben Barron, a retired educator, who has dedicated his life to supporting education for immigrants, and improving the California educational system;
- Mark Lowry, the director of the Orange County Food Bank;
- Joel Ohlgren, J.D., a retired lawyer and former member of the International Insolvency Institute delegation the United Nations Commission on International Trade; and
- Karen Gardner Richards, a retired teacher with 37 years of service with the Tustin Unified School District.

Nomination forms can be obtained by contacting the foundation office or by visiting www.sac.edu/foundation. For more information, call (714) 564-6092.

About Rancho Santiago Community College District
