Chancellor Rodríguez welcomed Corinna Evett, new SCC Academic Senate President, to District Council.

1. Participatory Governance Items

Chancellor Rodríguez reported that a review of the district logo was in process and it may be changed. Consideration will be given to the ripple effect of and costs associated with any change.

2. Review of Board Docket

The July 23, 2012 board docket was reviewed. Discussion regarding item 6.1 – Resource Development Items took place. Chancellor Rodríguez stated that future docket items will include the district match requirements for all grants. The Faculty Senate Presidents expressed their concern, in light of the current budget situation, that careful consideration be given to resources allocated to grants. It was also suggested that faculty have greater involvement in future grants.
